On Old World Topics—Britain Is Not Rushing to Any Hasty Conclusions on the Chinese Question
—The African Campaign—Early Return of Lord
Roberts to England Looked For—France in a Dilemma.

London, Sept. 9.—Great Britain is apparently pursuing a policy of inactivity which will be masterly, even though perhaps in reality it is only a "halfheartedness" of the lobby, weak-kneed, irresolute, so often attributed to the cabinet in recent years.

The time Lord Salisbury arrived at the situation which will have brightening rays for the cabinet in recent years. Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain are seeking a refuge in neutral territory. It is Gen. Botha who has gone into the woods and Gen. Botha has gone into the woods and Gen. Botha has gone into the woods.
