TWO FRENCHMEN TO CROSS ATLANTIC IN AN AIRSHIP

Will Start at Canary Isles and Land in Brazil.

BIGGEST BALLOON EVER MADE

Will Have Hinge Basket and a Non-Sinkable Boat With Motor Attached.

Paris, Sept. 21. — An attempt to cross the Atlantic Ocean in an airship is about to be made by Elisee Reclus, a noted French geographer, and Louis Capazza, the inventor of the parachute balloon and an aeronaut who distin-guished himself a few years ago by making a daring trip over the Mediterranean Sea from France to Corsica.

Pecatte, the secretary of the Aero Club of France, gives the following facts about the projected balloon voyage, which will be made for the purpose An English Captain to Make the of meteorological investigations.

The start will be made from the Canary Islands about the middle of next May. An enormous balloon is being built for the trip, four times larger than the largest ever made. It will have a capacity of about 46,000 cubic feet and will be spherical in shape, and will be inflated with hydrogen gas.

The upper one will be furnished like a cabin for sleeping. The lower one will six years. contain the necessary registers and sciand fuel for a twenty days' run.

MEN SERVANTS WANTED

Germans in London Act as Parlor

Maids. German boys and men are finding ready employmet in London as "house maids" and "parlor maids." They are solving to some extent the domestic servant problem. The men servants draw the same wages, work twice as hard and do not want so many concessions as the women of their age between 19 and 23. They do washing and can turn their hands to work for which women are totally unsuited. The bureau which started the enterprise is doing a roaring trade, and several others are being established in competition.

Omitted a Letter.

Constantinople, Sept. 21. -- Sultan Abdul Hamid contrives to go one better than his friend Kaiser Wilhelm, in lese majeste prosecutions. The accidental omission of a single letter in the body of a word has led to the suppression for an indefinite period of the Constantinople newspaper, Ikdam. In an anniversary article on the Sultan's accession, the omission of this letter turned the Turkish work "auspicious" into 'gloomy," so that the opening sentence read: "On this gloomy occasion." The fact that all the rest of the article was a hymn of praise of the Sultan told nothing in favor of the editor, who has
