If the Crown-Attorney Magee today notified fire is a small one, the brigade whose district it is will turn out, and the others are to be all in readiness if their services are required.

> George Fox has taken out a building permit for a two-story brick dwelling on the corner of St. James and Hellmuth

Horses are very scarce just now, but the class of horse required for the fire department is especially scarce. Chief Clark has his eye on one horse in this city, but the price is very steep, $225. The city wants a matched span, if possible, however, and it is likely the chief will be sent on a still hunt one of these days to different points in Ontario.
