"The Girl From Rector's." "The Girl From Rector's." to appear at the Grand Wednesday evening has received many friendly notices and great praise for its funny situations. One of the Los Angeles papers, in speaking of this comedy says: "As a matter of fact, 'The Girl From Recmatter of fact, 'The Girl From Rector's' was rather an enjoyable little farce. 'The Girl From Rector's' on the whole was more interesting and humorous than most prevailing farces." A capable company of comedians has been engaged, and the scenic production will be given the same as in the principal cities.

"Naughty Marietta," Comic Opera.
Naughty Marietta," the new com Naughty Marietta," the new comic opera by Victor Herbert and Rida Johnson Young, which Oscar Hammerstein will present for the first time here at the Grand Opera House next Thursday evening for one night, is said to be the best work of these well-known authors. It will be the first time that a light opera has been given with a grand opera ensemble, as the list of artists have been gathered from the Manhattan Opera House, New the Manhattan Opera House. York. It is said the superlative cast, the splendid augmented orchestra, the chorus and the sumptuous production should mark an epoch in theatrical history.

history. Famous Attractions Coming.

Mr. A. J. Small is giving Londoners some of the greatest attractions in America this season. Two famous actresses appear next week, when Viola Allen and Ethel Barrymore come to the Grand on Monday and Tuesday evenings. 1

The Dixie Chorus.

A unique entertainment of no small merit was that presented by the Dixie Chorus and Mr. Henry Coleman in the Auditorium on Saturday evening. While there may be better colored performers, the Dixie Chorus is deserving of particular credit for the variety which the members introduce into their programme. Fathos and humor are found together in the picturesque sketches of the old slavery days, and the war-time church service is unusually realistic and amusservice is unusually realistic and amu ing.

The musical programme which concluded the evening's entertainment was rather uneven, but Mr. Johnson's recitations from Paul Laurence Dunbar were all that could be desired. The banjo selections by Mr. Williams were also very sood.

good.

Mr. Coleman's comments on the race good.

Mr. Coleman's comments on the race problem were concise and to the point. He takes a very wide and fair view of the whole question, and his criticisms of Thomas F. Dixon's book were well taken. On the whole, the programme was instructive and entertaining, and it was well received. Mr. Coleman also spoke at the men's meeting on Sunday afternaces.
