Interviewed Cabinet.

The Toronto Men's Liberal Asso-iation, after numerous meetings for ciation, after numerous meetings for seven days with representatives of the postal employees, sent the delegation to interview members of the cabinet. "In view of the government's offer to the men," said President Collins, "we strongly recommend that the postal employees apply immediately to Mr. Lemon, who has assured us that all will receive fair and sympathetic treatment. It was felt in Ottawa that the men had not been made fully aware of the government's position. The government's been made tuny aware of the gov-ernment's position. The government's offer to appoint a sub-committee as contained in the letter to the feder-ation of June 18, still stands, and as the men have also asked for such a committee the way seems to be wide for the strike to be

Mr. Lemon replied: The door is open and the latch is on the outside for all good former employees. He then made the following statement: The postmaster will, under reorganization of staff, deal with each individual case in its merits and fair treatment will be given to all."

"Mr. Lemon stated that he was to put on 250 men at 10 o'clock this morning, but would postpone this until late this afternoon, so that the old employees would have an opportunity to get back.

Juvenile Court Judge Fails To Where Good

FAVORED BY WOMAN

Miss Evelyn Harrison Supports Statement of St. Thomas Magistrate.

Moved by a particularly callot case of wife desertion in his cour yesterday, Magistrate Maxwell of St Thomas, advocated the lash fo corporal ishment in this instance is of pect ar interest at a time when great many men and women pro-counce forcibly that it should be slavery and kindred institutions. Judge Warner, of the juvenile court in whose court wife desertion as i affects the children plays a prominent part, is among those who believe that social development has got beyond the lash. In other words, he believes that 20th century justice shuold deal with the criminal in a more understanding and sympatheic manner than that indicated by the use of corporal punishment.

Special Permit For Collegiate Would Be a Luxury

It is understood that if dramas or heavy theatrical productions are to be offered at the Central Collegiate Institute auditorium in future, a spe-cial theatre license must be secured This is not merely a public hall license, but a special permit which is an assessment on the seating capacity of the auditorium.

Under the regulations an annual fee of 25 cents a seat must be paid.

This would tax the board of educa-tion over $200 a year, as there are some eight or nine hundred seats in
