

NEWS of all THE WORLD told in PICTURES

The Salvation Army is carrying on a constant fight with the starvation situation in Berlin, Germany. Crowds are shown about a soup wagon which is one of the most successful means used in distribution

The champion jumper, Blue Bird, is seen going over the water jump in perfect style at Egham and Thrope Agricultural Show in England

Hythe, England, has experienced a tremendous gale, said to be the worst for over twelve years. It held no terror for these young ladies who were photographed on the front while the storm was at its height

Albert Tangora, of Paterson, New Jersey, created a new world's record for speed on a typewriting machine during a competition in New York recently. He held an average of 147 words per minute for one continuous hour

The Bavarian premier, Dr. von Knilling, has declared that Bavaria cannot remain united with Germany at the same time swearing in its troops with the oath of allegiance to Bavaria

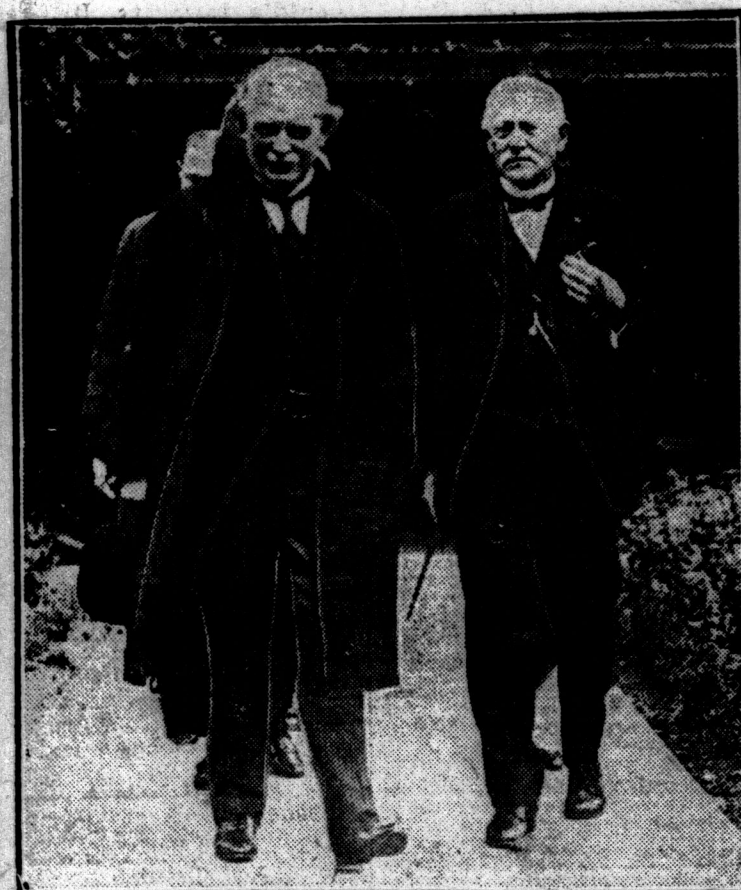

A strange looking bird from South America has arrived at the London Zoo, England. Because of its long neck it has been called the snake bird, but it's real name is the American darter

One of the latest models for winter wear is made of black marvella cloth, showing the straightline effects. It has a very wide border, collar and cuffs of squirrel

The biggest block of silver ever taken from the Cobalt district was discovered by Anson Clement on his claim near the town. The nugget weighs 3,200 pounds and is valued at over $20,000

The Right Hon. David Lloyd George paid his respects to the widow of Warren G. Harding at Marion, Ohio, recently. The father of the late president is shown with the former British premier

One kiss stolen from the lips of Mrs. Alice Mercer, of New York City, cost Louis Goodman $5,000. The judgment was recently awarded to her in the New York supreme court

Broadway is sprinkled with Canadian stars and stars-to-be. The photo shows two of them, Misses Violet and Alice Dunn, daughters of Mrs. Emma Dunn, Toronto, as they appear in a recent stage success

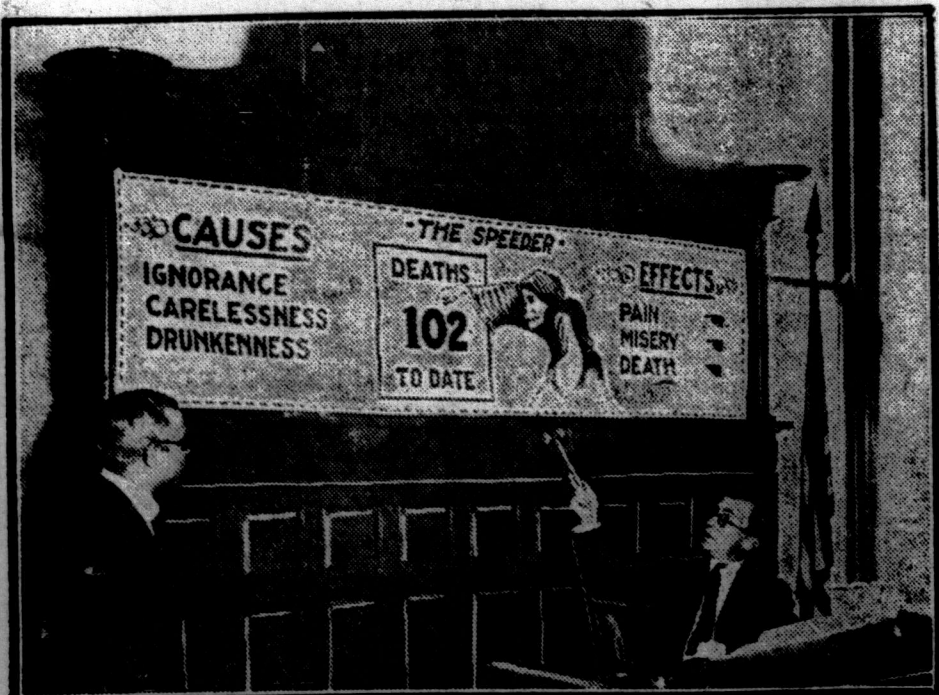

Sir Ernest Pollock, formerly attorney-general of Great Britain, has been appointed Master of the Rolls, in which office he is the official custodian of the nation's records back more than 1,000 years

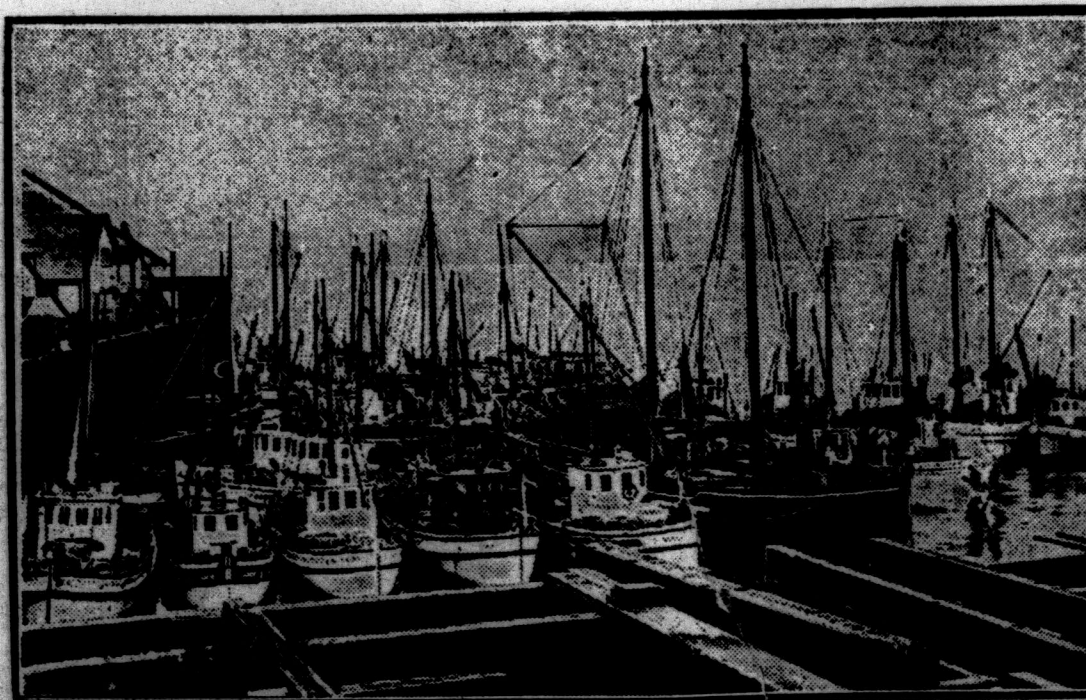

General Smuts, who is in London for the Imperial Conference, is seen laying the foundation stone of the South African Pavilion, which will be part of the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley

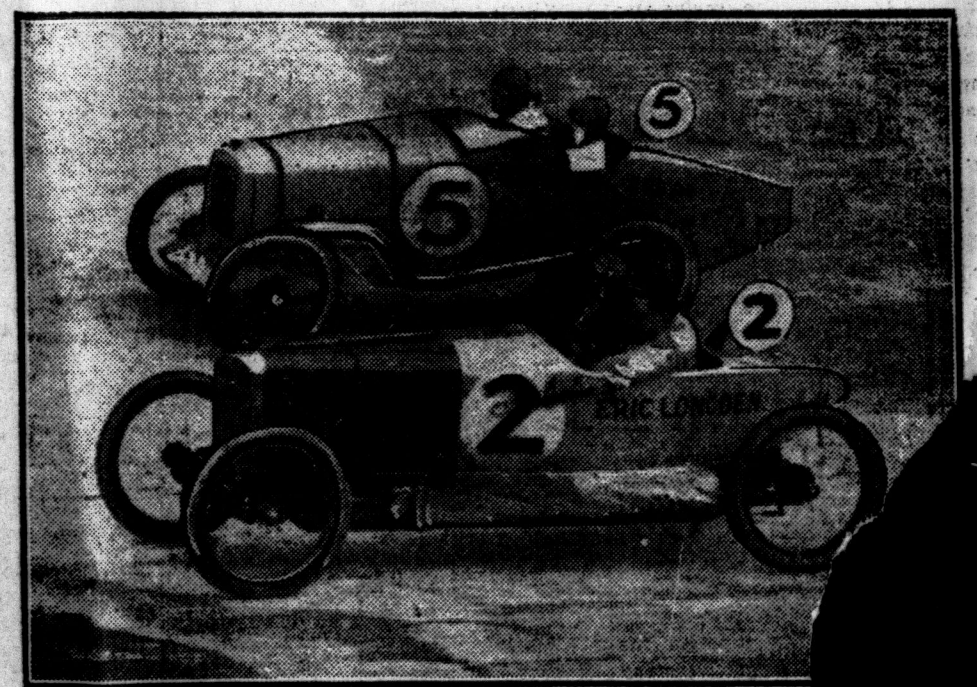

England took great interest in the motor-gliding competition held at Lympne recently. The Duke of York was snapped with Mr. Handley Page while watching the contests

This striking warning, designed to reduce the number of motor deaths, has been erected in the Cincinnati municipal court where speed and traffic violations are tried

An experiment in shipping frozen halibut from British Columbia to France is now being made. Photograph shows part of the halibut fishing fleet in Prince Rupert harbor

There was a large fleet of racing motor cars gathered at Brookland recently, to compete in the two hundred mile race. Two of the cars are seen in a nose-to-nose drive

Read Julia Hoyt's Suggestions on Good Taste in Furnish