OBITUARY.

Mrs. Charles MacCormack.

The death of Mrs. Charles MacCormack occurred at her home in Black Lands on Thursday morning, Feb. 23rd after an illness of two weeks with paralysis, aged sixty-seven years. Mrs. MacCormack was a much respected citizen and by her kind and cheerful disposition endeared herself to many. She is survived by four sons and five daughters, five brothers and one sister and a large circle of friends by whom she will be much missed. Her husband predeceased her nineteen years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday, Feb. 25th at eleven o'clock and was largely attended. Rev. M. McLeod conducted the services at the house and grave.

Mrs. Daniel Adams.

Glenlevit, N. B., March 14.—It was with feelings of deep regret that we learned on Wednesday of the death of Mrs. Daniel Adams one of our most respected residents.

Mrs. Adams who was in her sixty-seventh year, had been in failing health for the past few months, but it was not until the last two weeks that the end was expected. All that kind hands and medical aid could do was rendered, but she passed peacefully away at her home here on March 8th.

Mrs. Adams was of a kind and loving disposition, willing to lend a helping hand in time of need and always trusted in Christ as her Lord and Master. She was a faithful and willing worker in the church and sabbath school as long as her health permitted. Never tiring of work for the Master she endeavored in 1906 to raise means to build the Presbyterian church in Glen Levit, which was built in that year through her faithfulness and work. In loosing Mrs. Adams we loose one who will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother, her sorrowing husband, four daughters, Mrs. David Gillis, Runnymede, P. Q.; Mrs. J. P. Boudreau, Mrs. Augustus A. Thompson and Mrs. James F. Pollock, Glen Levit; also three sons: Robert of River Maine, Que.; Wallace and Levi of Glen Levit; also an adopted grand-daughter, Reta MacDonald at home. Also three sisters and six brothers as well as thirty-four grand children and one great-grand child, to whom the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, and was largely attended, upwards to seventy horses followed the remains to Flat Lands cemetery, where interment was made. The services were conducted at the church and grave by Rev. B. C. Salter. The pall bearers were: Robert, Wallace and Levi Adams, David Gillis Augustus Thompson and James F. Pollock.
