

THE MANITOBA CRAZE

Letter from a Torontoan in Winnipeg—The Spectator's Paradise—The Mechanics—How Duhau was bought.

If you ride up in the street cars at 6 in the evening you will see nothing but Manitoba lots and Manitoba farms discussed. A letter recipient yesterday from a World correspondent in Winnipeg describes

THE SITUATION THERE as follows: "It is costing me $12 a week for board, and that the poorest you ever saw, but one meal a day will do you as well as can live on excitement. The situation may be best described as follows: You have been at a hotel where they sell pools and where the excitement is running wild on some favorite horse. That is a fair simile of Winnipeg at the present day. In every real estate office and in every real estate office you will find a man who is not only a real estate agent but also a gambler. He will tell you that the bottom must soon fall out of it."

THE ROLLS OF ONTARIO. Said a newspaper correspondent to an old Manitobian the other day: "Everybody in Winnipeg appears to be happy. Why is that?" Said the native, "Why shouldn't we be happy? We have a splendid climate, plenty to eat, and fools from Ontario bring us all the money we want."

THE ST. CATHARINE JOURNAL. Some ten or twelve years ago, shrewd speculators saw in Ontario a formidable rival to Chicago, and in the immediate aftermath of the war worked up a boom in unprecedented magnitude. Corners were laid in Manitoba, the prices greater than those in any other section, however, but it lasted long enough to ruin thousands of people. Even in Nebraska, a semi grain state, the Chicago and Boston looked insignificant in comparison.

THE ST. CATHARINE JOURNAL. Said a newspaper correspondent to an old Manitobian the other day: "Everybody in Winnipeg appears to be happy. Why is that?" Said the native, "Why shouldn't we be happy? We have a splendid climate, plenty to eat, and fools from Ontario bring us all the money we want."

CRIME AND POLICE

Annual Report of the Chief Constable on the Duties and Condition of the Force. The major report for 1911 is to hand at last, got up in the same old style. There were 6646 persons arrested or summoned for offences, 6514 being males and 1132 females. This is less by 993 than the number of offenders in 1910. Of these 2271 were natives of Canada, 1625 of Ireland, 992 of England, 436 of Scotland, 170 of the United States, 47 of the continent, 39 of Germany, and 46 came from other countries. It is set down that 2491 were married and 3165 single. The offences were of a varied nature, the most numerous being breaches of the liquor law and city by-laws, drink and disorderly, larceny, vagrancy, and threatening. Victims to the number of 1164 had been furnished with lodgings during the year. Stolen goods to the value of $30,487.55 had been recovered. As usual the chief forget to give the value of the stolen property not recovered. There were 21 inquests held and 192 children were found dead.

THE FULL STRENGTH OF THE FORCE IS 133, of whom 28 are officers. The yearly pay amounts to $270,148. The minimum pay of 75 members of the force being from the green line. Canada claims 33, England 13 and Scotland 13. The chief says that more accommodation is wanted at headquarters and draws attention to the unwholesome condition of the barracks, making her to the police station at the sleeping accommodation at the same station is miserable. The doctor is right for once.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT. There are signs of the early opening of navigation. A wharf built by the city full length on the quay, yesterday looking like a long bridge, was being used by the police. He was heard to mutter that "she's opening up earlier than ever."

THE PRIMITIVE METHODIST body of christians have also gone into the Northwest land business. Rev. Mr. Bee has charge of their colonization scheme. The street railway company has converted its stables at Yorkville into a hospital for sick horses and the residents in the neighborhood are in a state of alarm.

THE MANAGER of the West Presbyterian church has distanced the church, being afraid that the members wanted to introduce an organ into the service. Like the Grand Trunk, the management of the Northern railway has prohibited its employees from giving information concerning the company to the press. How foolish.

A PURSE containing a small sum of money was found on the street at 10:30 p.m. The loser can have the same by calling at No. 2 police station on Agnes street, near Teravale.

THE TORONTO branch of the Anglo-Jewish association acknowledge the receipt of $50 for the Russo-Jewish relief fund from W. E. Elliott of the firm of Messrs. Elliott & Co.

SATURDAY night the room of Miss Minnie Orr daughter of the proprietor of the Mitchell house on Jarvis street was entered by a burglar. The police are investigating.

THE ST. PATRICK'S day celebration of the Dugganston convention by numerous branches of the emerald and hereditary association. The time is not decided but will probably be on St. Patrick's day.

A PARTY consisting of W. B. Smith, Ald. B. W. G. Falgout, H. J. Scott, T. W. Fisher, E. J. Jarvis, Roger Lamb and a number of others left by special train for Winnipeg last night at 11:45.

THE WHALE is a difficult bird to handle. He lay on cars at the foot of Simcoe street yesterday, but could not be removed for want of the proper apparatus. To-night will however see him safely quartered at the Zoo.

CHAS. H. DAY, agent of the great Foreign show, made a portrait of the late H. Arnold by his friends at the Hotel Brunswick last night, the occasion being his departure for Winnipeg. There were about forty present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. After the usual toasts were gone through some were indulged in until the wee small hours.

MR. ARNOLD leaves for Winnipeg to-day at 12:15 p.m., and carries with him the good wishes of his friends.

Winnipeg Free Press: Mr. McGaw of the Queen's hotel, Toronto, together with Clarence Moberly, architect, and a number of Toronto capitalists, are on their way here with the intention of securing a site for a new $250,000 hotel which it is proposed to erect here during the coming season. Negotiations are already in progress for a site on Main street, but the exact locality of the hotel has not yet been finally decided. It is intended that this hotel shall have anything of the sort west of Chicago, and the men who have the enterprise in hand are just the men to accomplish that result.

CHAMPAGNE IN THE CITIES

The Police had Two Sessions Last Night and Sent Considerable Wines. At the central station last night a World reporter saw four cases of champagne and two dozen of beer. When did you get it? he asked of Inspector Stuart. I'm not going to tell you was the reply. Let the police search for the beer for which he learned the wiles had made a raid upon two baggies on Emily street, with a view of seizing any liquor that might be on the premises. They found a few cases of champagne in both places, but the beer and Lizzie Adams' and removed them to the station. None of the inmates were arrested, but four officers remained in possession of Lizzie Adams' house all night. Their presence was quite distressing to the girls, who kept watch at the door and warned all callers away.

THE POLICE are to be commended for their vigilance in the matter of the beer. These people such a score as will drive them out of town, if not out of the city. The police should withhold particulars of raids from the press.

THE MAN at the mad-house has a tip-top berth. The smaller the boy the greater his mother's solicitude. A debt of gratitude is easy to acknowledge but a brighter one will find contentment that hurtful.

PIUTO has but one "Nik" name, and it beats "Old Harry," how quickly he responds to it. It is barely possible that Gambetta is more "resigned" than the French people ever will become.

AN ASSIGNMENT pointer to the gallows, Judge Porter's friend is entitled to the blue ribbon.—Dufferin Tribune. When a straggling horn-blower sees himself surrounded by a brighter one, he will announce to the less attentive to the door-keeper's cash returns.

SHAKESPEARE modernized: The good die young. The man at the mad-house is the oldest inhabitant. Where one woman scans the horizon for signs of the dawn of a brighter one, she is not counting among their neighbors trying to borrow saleratus.

THE HOTEL had been educated at a Latin school, and his fellow-couriers heard him utter "Par nobiscum." People who complain of the abundance of legislators in this country will find contentment that hurtful. He has 10,004 of its population by snake bites last year.

NOT, but not gaudy: Student (not very clear as to his name): That's what the author says, anyway. Professor: "I don't want the author: I want you, you're dead (disparagingly)." "Well, you've got it."

"I'm proud of this town," said a little man, sitting before the stove with a pipe in his mouth. "I'm proud of this town," said a little man, sitting before the stove with a pipe in his mouth. "I'm proud of this town," said a little man, sitting before the stove with a pipe in his mouth.

THE MADRID BOMB. MADRID, Feb. 13.—A party of various kinds produced a serious panic on the bus to-day. Spanish funds fell 2, the bank from 451 to 452 and the net four per cent. bond from 100 to 99. There was a similar panic at Barcelona, and the market rallied at all points.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Doty and Mrs. Smith, walking on a railroad, near the city of Indianapolis, were struck by a train and killed. Both leave families.

FIVE TRACKMEN KILLED. BALTIMORE, Feb. 13.—Five trackmen were killed today by a train on the Baltimore and Potomac road. The men stepped from the track to escape a train and were struck by a train on the other track.

STORM AND CALM. BY OWEN JARVIS. "The waves of love will rise as a storm. Traces of love, wherever there is no return. My man is split, my rudder gone; they burn like a wild fire, my heart is split. Across my shattered deck, the mad winds tore. Let me see and calm upon my soul were set."

100,000 Barrels of Burning Oil. OLEAN, N. Y., Feb. 13.—The burning of oil tanks from the burning oil tanks were relieved this afternoon; 105,000 barrels of oil were destroyed, involving a loss of $115,000. The loss will be borne by an assessment on all persons having oil stored with outside pipe lines. The overflow from which the greatest danger apprehended occurred at 8 o'clock this morning, but sufficient fuel had been drawn off to prevent its passing over ditches and trenches prepared during the night. Three hundred men were on hand.

THE BOLD BOYS OF THE TOWN

Dublin, Jan. 18.—The campaign against the ladies' land leagues seems to be practically abandoned. But it is not the ladies about at this moment. The boys' land league and its unnumbered branches are for a quiet moment to implore children, and yet nothing short of imprisonment will break up the juvenile messengers who are now held every Sunday in a thousand places throughout the land, and which the rising generation is learning to acquire a knowledge of the ways of political agitation. From one point nothing can be more distressing to some of the mothers of these boys' land leagues. It is conducted strictly after the fashion in vogue among adults. It is provided with a chairman, secretary and treasurer, with resolutions and speaking; and each patriotic combatant more than his neighbor. On one occasion recently in this city a little fellow of about 6 years of age boldly advocated the "no rent" doctrine. He was, however, so far from being a bright one, that he was unable to give any reason why he should not be known to stand and deliver in some of the public squares. There was an average of 100 boys on the streets of Dublin, and the boys' land leagues being provided with a chairman, secretary and treasurer, and each patriotic combatant more than his neighbor. A FATHER'S HORROR. WINNIPEG, Ont., Feb. 13.—A Henry Walton of North Colchester was driving a wagon along the road that he had towed, he noticed that one of the wheels of the wagon was blocked up in some way, and getting down he had a look at it. He found that the axle was broken, and he was unable to get the wagon on. He was unable to get the wagon on, and he was unable to get the wagon on.

THE ATTEMPTED TRIP TO MADRID. SYDNEY, Feb. 13.—William Terde, who attempted a double murder, the victim being Libby Stokely, last night, had a look at the man who had been shot, and he was unable to get the wagon on.

A MAMMOTH LAND TRANSACTION. CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The land set aside for the city of Chicago, which was transferred to Abner Taylor, C. B. Farwell and John V. Farwell, Chicago, and J. C. Cannon, who will furnish the funds for the building. The tract is larger than Connecticut and five times as large as Rhode Island. It is situated in the southwest corner of Texas. The length is 197 miles, the average width is 27 miles, and the area is 5,373,000 acres. The present owners are the largest land-owners in the world.

A MAGISTRATE FIRED AT. LIMERICK, Feb. 13.—Magistrate Lloyd has been shot by a party from behind a wall near Bodeke. A policeman accompanying him was severely wounded. Eleven arrests were made under the coercion of Sir Ernest, county Mayo, in connection with a brutal outrage on three men, who are still serious ill.
