FIFTEENTH YEAR

JOSEPH TAIT DENOUNCED.

YOUNG LIBERALS HAVE NO FURTHER USE FOR HIM.

His Attempt to Defeat the 15,000 Young Men Causes a Lively Discussion at the Meeting of the Young Liberals.

Mr. Joseph Tait, member of the Local Assembly for Toronto, was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Young Liberals held last night.

Within the hall of the Young Liberals the Reform Club itself the young men accused the "Oracle" of Toronto of being a "panderer," of "violating liberal principles" and a resolution was presented which expressed the hope of the club that at the next election some candidate other than Mr. Tait be selected to carry the Reform banner.

The "Oracle" perhaps taking would be a more appropriate word—was occasioned by Mr. Tait's attempt to disfranchise 15,000 of Toronto's young men by his vote on the Sunday car question in the Private Bills Committee.

As though a rule of the Young Liberal Club is always finding fault with the Tories at Ottawa there remains but a condemnation for the members of Sir Oliver's flock, Mr. Tait's vote was such a blow as their own repeated declarations that with surprising unanimity they condemned it.

Up to 9 o'clock routine business was transacted. Then R. H. Falconer laid a copy of The World on the table and announced that he had a resolution to offer.

He reviewed the bringing of the Sunday car question before the Private Bills Committee. With the question of Sunday cars the club had nothing to do but the vote cast by the Liberal member for Toronto in favor of restricting the vote to young men.

Had much pleasure in seconding the resolution, said David Lewis, President of the Young Liberals.

President Lewis called in vain for a defender of Joseph to rise. Finally, he called a member to the chair and said that Mr. Tait had voted in accordance with his convictions and should not be blamed for what he did.

After considerable pressure Mr. Falconer withdrew his resolution, but stuck manfully to the position he had taken, and said that he was glad that the majority of the club agreed with him.

Madam Sarah Grant's New Novel—Author of Heavenly Twins.

The book is a remarkable one and, unless we are much mistaken, will be one of the literary sensations of the year.

Mr. Wood of Hastings gave notices of motions for returns from the Provincial Inspector of Fisheries.

Our fair city will be honored this week by an army of worthy men who are noted the world over for their justice, fairness, liberality and jolly.

QUIET DAY IN THE HOUSE.

The Legislature Takes Work Very Easily—Thinking the Assessment Act—A Few Bills Advanced.

It was precisely twenty-three minutes past three yesterday afternoon when the Speaker took the chair and began the reading of prayers to a half-empty House.

The House then went into committee on a bill to amend the Ontario Elections Act. Mr. Tait introduced a bill to amend the Ontario Elections Act.

Several other measures were put through the committee stage in similar fashion, including bills to legalize by-law No. 214 of the City of Toronto.

The order paper was rapidly gone through the response of the House to the various bills introduced.

When Mr. Ryerson moved for a return giving the numbers and religions of temporary employees of the Department of Public Works, the House adjourned.

Mr. Field's bill to amend the act relating to the registration of births, marriages and deaths was given a second reading.

The Tariff Reductions Beyond Mr. Davin's Anticipations.

He Describes the New Bill as One of the Boldest and Sagacious Measures in the History of Canadian Tariffs—It Reduces the Cost of Living and Relieves Customs Burden.

OTTAWA, April 2.—Very little progress was made today in the tariff debate, nothing but the usual stump speeches, and with the exception of Mr. Davin no practical discussion of the issue.

It is understood that some 30 or 40 honorable gentlemen still wish to address the House on the general principles of the tariff and stump speeches.

In the meantime tariff deputations continue to come to Ottawa and to make representations to the trade ministers against some of the proposed changes.

VOORHES ON THE INCOME TAX.

It Will Reach Only $5,000 of the American People.

Were the Total Wealth of the United States Fairly Distributed Every One of the 65,000,000 Would Have a Pailful $1000—The Worst Days of Rome Recalled.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Mr. Voorhies began in the Senate today the discussion of the new tariff bill. His speech occupied the attention of the Senate for two hours.

Of all the wants and necessities of life the strongest and most indispensable is that of food.

It is in considering an income tax the most extraordinary and the most unjust of all the proposals of the present administration.
