and Sergt. C. Newell, who was hit in the arm). Charley was slightly wounded, so far as I can find out, two days afterwards. The wounded are now all in England. No doubt you know that the Germans used gas. We did not come under it enough to harm us, but we could smell it and that was enough. What a lot we've seen since this time last year. Fred and I are promoted to Sergeants. My mother's youngest brother is a wounded prisoner of war in Lille. He was in the 2nd Suffolks.

Salem and Walnut teams on the latter's diamond on Friday evening. Ross pitched an excellent game for Walnut and at the end of the first inning Walnut led by 2-1. In the second Salem evened the score. King pitched the first two innings for Salem, then Fisher took the box. The end of the fourth saw the visitors leading 5-3. The next inning on account of darkness errors were made, the final score standing 10-6 for Salem. Bill Rundle handled the game to a T. The line-up:—

A girl's complexion is something more than a matter to concern her vanity. It is an indication of the state of her health. is an indication of the state of her health, Pallor in a growing girl means a thinning; of the blood. Parents should be watchful of their daughters' complexions and should see to it that these danger signs are corrected. When a girl in her teensbecomes pale and sallow, if she shows an inclination to tire easily, is listless and inattentive to her work or studies, she reads Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a tonicinattentive to her work or studies, she needs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a tonic-which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering. A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can supply, and which restore brightness to the eye and color to the cheeks. Miss Delina Arsenant, Urbainville, P. E. I., is one of the thousands of anaemic girls restored to health by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I was attacked with son, Corp. G. H. Brown, who was to ported wounded in last week's paper. The letter was written from No. 2 Canadian Stationary Hospital, Boulogne, France, and dated May 15th, 1915, and rance, and dated may loth, lots, and says:—

"Guess you know by this time that the lucky boy has stopped a chunk of steel. I did not want to do it; I was always boasting that they would not hit me, so it serves me right. I was hit five or six days ago. It was a hard trip down country. It feels good to be under a roof the work with real Canadian mires and health by the use of Dr, Williams' Pink. Pills. She says: "I was attacked with anaemia, and was in such a miserable condition that I had to consult a doctor, and was under his care for several months, but without getting better. I was growing thinner every day, had dark circles around the eyes. I could hardly sleep at night, but tossed restlessly and once more with real Canadian nurses and doctors and a REAL bed to lie on, the first in five months. Going under the X-ray to-morrow—a bad wound in the chest and several minor ones, "thither and yon." Was hit by shell when parading the REMAINS of the company to come back for reforming. I was left senior officer in company as not another officer of any kind survived. A veritable hell—regiment cut to pieces. Climbed once more with real Canadian nurses and sleep at night, but tossed restlessly and got up in the morning with black anticipation of the day's miseries before me. I was always bothered with headaches and pains in the back and limbs. My appetite was poor and I frequently vomited what I did eat. My friends feared that I would not recover. I had often seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised and finally decided to try them. I used officer of any kind survived. A vertainte hell—regiment cut to pieces. Climbed over 250 dead getting out of trench—not a murmur—every man died a soldier. They finished us, but we held. The old story, "the thin red line." Cannot write much. Expect to be sent to England and finally decided to try them. I used altogether nine boxes and they made me as well as ever I was in my life. All the pains and aches disapeared; my appetite returned. I could sleep soundly at night, and the color returned to my cheeks. I also gained seventeen pounds in weight. I am now always well, and for this happy condition I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville,
