After all is said and done there is nothing that will take the place of good Glasses. One may move nearer the light or bring the light nearer to them, they may twist and turn the book or paper, they may do as they please, yet, if the eyes need Glasses they must have them, otherwise there is the inevitable eye strain, followed by headaches.

ARKONA

Prize list of Arkona School Fair will appear in next week's issue. Arkona is now without a veterinary surgeon and a good practice is now awaiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Campbell and daughter of Sarnia spent the weekend at Dr. R. A. Hume's.

Auction Sale of Household effects at the premises of Dr. R. A. Hume, Arkona, 1 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 1st. Auction Sale of Farm Stock and Implements, also this year's crop of grain at Dr. R. A. Hume's farm, 1 mile west of Arkona, 1 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 4th.

Dr. R. A. Hume has sold his residence in Arkona to Dr. R. G. Woods, also his farm of 75 acres, 1 mile west of Arkona, to Wm. Pickering of Warwick. Dr. Hume and family leave for the West in about three weeks time.

To Asthma Sufferers. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy comes like a helping hand to a sinking swimmer. It gives new life and hope by relieving his trouble—something he has come to believe impossible. Its benefit is too evident to be questioned—it is its own best argument—its own best advertisement. If you suffer from asthma get this time-tried remedy and find help like thousands of others.

DEATH OF DONALD MCGIBBON

A former and at one time prominent resident of Bosanquet, Donald McGibbon, died at the home of his son, Dr. Peter McGibbon, M.P., Bracebridge, Ont., on Wednesday, Sept. 21st at the advanced age of 90 years and 8 months. Mr. McGibbon will be remembered by many as the owner of the mill at Rock Glen. The remains were brought to Watford and the funeral held from Harper Bros. undertaking rooms on Saturday morning, interment being made in Arkona cemetery. Rev. Ratcliffe of Arkona conducted the last rites. The pallbearers were George Stoner, T. Lampman, G. Fitzsimons, Fred Nelson, F. Lamb and T. McPherson.

THE LATE JAMES JACKSON

James Jackson, a life-long and prominent resident of Arkona, died at his home here on Saturday, Sept. 17th, which was his 66th birthday. He was born in Hamilton, and the family came to Arkona when he was six years of age. When he grew up he engaged in the wagon-making business with his father, the late John Jackson. Afterwards he went into the furniture manufacturing business, to which later on he added that of funeral director. In June last, owing to ill-health, he sold out to Stanley Catt. He always had a lively interest in the affairs of the village, being Reeve at different times, a Master in Masonic Lodge and an active member of the Methodist church. On Oct. 9th, 1878, he married Joanna Wintemute, daughter of Enoch Wintemute, at that time a merchant here. She survives him, with two sons and two daughters, viz., Arthur A. Jackson, Sudbury; Lloyd F. Jackson, Toronto; and Isabel and Laura Jackson, at home. Two brothers and two sisters are living, viz., John Jackson, Chesaning, Mich.; Fred Jackson, St. Johns Mich.; Mrs. S. S. Abelle, Toronto; and Mrs. Wm. Hotelling, Chesaning, Mich. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to the Arkona cemetery, the Rev. Messrs. Couzens, Jones and Ratcliffe officiating. The relatives present from a distance were A. A. Jackson, Sudbury; and Mr. and Mrs. Abelle, Toronto. The bearers were Philip Austin, Herbert Hall, T. A. Lampman, Frank Lamb, Fred Nelson and J. F. Smith.

Many have been relieved of corns by Holloway's Corn Remover. It has a power of its own that will be found effective.

HELP YOURSELVES

When an old resident of Watford comes back to the town to pay a visit to his friends, it is interesting news to a large number of readers. When Mrs. Smith goes to see her sister for a week in Toronto, a great many people like to hear about it. When young George Jones is honored at high school or leaves for a position in Toronto or London, scores of his acquaintances would like to know it. Readers of The Guide-Advocate can help us to make a bright personal column. Send your weekly note by letter or drop it in at the office.

PETROLIA FAIR

Petrolia, Sept. 27.—The Petrolia and Ennisville Agricultural Society management was well repaid for its efforts by a large attendance and increased number of entries at the exhibition today. The number of horses and sheep exhibited this year was much greater than formerly.

Large exhibits of beef cattle were shown from the McLean herds, of Kerwood; Walter Annett's of Brooke and Albert McMahon's herd of Plympton, with numerous smaller exhibitors. Holstein cattle were represented by the Miller herd, of Moorey Durnfries, of Marthaville; the Lambkin her, of Moore Township and the Duncan herd of Moore Township. Heavy teams in harness, broad naves and foals were a heavy entry. More than 200 sheep were exhibited.

H. Ellis, of Blyth, was judge of heavy horses, Thos. Henderson, of Glencoe, acted as judge of beef cattle and sheep, C. C. Havalin, of Wilsonville, was judge of dairy cattle.

Trials of speed brought out a large entry of local horses in the classified race, roadster class and 2.30 trot or pace. The Petrolia (county champions) and Waubuno baseball game resulted in a score of 5 to 4 in favor of Waubuno.

BANK INSPECTOR HELD UP FOR BANDIT

A Toronto inspector of the Bank of Nova Scotia had a hair-raising experience on Friday afternoon last when he entered the branch bank at Belmont, this official being held at the point of a revolver by Miss Reta Brown, bank clerk, until his identity was made known to her by the branch manager, J. Break.

The inspector entered the bank during the absence of Mr. Break and after saying "good afternoon" walked into the manager's office. The girl became suspicious, and ran into the office and covered the inspector with a revolver.

"What do you want?" she demanded. The visitor tried to explain that he was district inspector and that he had papers to prove it, but this the girl would not accept.

In a few minutes Mr. Break returned and found the inspector covered with the revolver, not making a move for fear of his life. Miss Brown having warned him she would shoot if he attempted to rise from his chair. The manager explained to the clerk that it would be perfectly all right to put the weapon away, that the visitor was no hold-up man, but the district inspector.

After being released the inspector congratulated Miss Brown, remarking that it would not be well for bandits to enter this branch of the bank while Miss Brown was on the job.

KERWOOD SCHOOL FAIR

Kerwood, Sept. 26.—Today brought to a successful climax a year's work along school fair lines, when the schools in the townships of Adelaide and Metcalfe gathered at Kerwood Village at the annual school fair. The Boy Scouts' Band was in attendance and led the school parade from the village to the Dominion Canning Factory, where the fair was held. During the afternoon they delighted the crowds, some 2,000 in number, with popular airs.

Seldom, if ever, has been seen such a splendid exhibit of fruits and vegetables, grains and roots, to say nothing of the school work, as shown here. It was estimated that upwards of 3,000 entries were made by children of the nine schools represented. The women of the sections conducted a booth, which did a hustling business throughout the afternoon.

The unparalleled success of the fair is due to good organization and the splendid co-operation of the people of Kerwood, U. F. O. and U. F. W. O. clubs, Women's Institute and other associations and individuals. Under the convensorship of Mrs. A. Woods a special prize list was prepared, which supplemented the regular prize list by about 150 classes. W. P. Macdonald, agricultural Representative at Petrolia, assisted R. A. Finn, who was in charge, in carrying out the program of the day. C. Frey, of the department of agriculture, London, took charge of the sports and other contests. Mr. P. D. Vahey, of London, judged the pet stock, poultry and eggs, and Mr. E. I. McLoughery, of Petrolia, looked after the judging of the fruits and vegetables, and Miss Smith, of Petrolia, and Miss Welsh of the department of agriculture, London, had charge of the school work, cooking and sewing.
