I had consulted several feminent doctors, who after doing what they could feminent doctors, who after doing which grave the state of the several feminent doctors, which does not considered my case as hop eless I ought to say that I had been softering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing which during the last two years got so much worse that every one considered my condition as hopeless. I as a last resource got a Box of your Pills, which soon gave relief and by persevering in their use for some weeks, together with rubbing night and moining your Ointment over my chest and stomach, and right ride, I have by their meats. slone got completely cutted, and to the astonishment of myself and every body who knows me.

DEBILITY, OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr Smith, of No. 5, little Thomas Street, Gibsen Street, Limbeth, dated Dec. 12th, 1849.

To Professor Holloway.
Sin-I beg to inform you that for nearly five years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health suffering from extreme weakness and debility with constant nervous headaches giddiness, and sickness of the stomach together with a great depression of spirits, I used to think that nothing could benefit me as I had been to many medical men some of whom after doing all that was in their power informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the teach of cure.
Logether with a very disordered state of the stomseth and liver, making my case so camplicated than nothing could be done for me. One day being unsually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertise I, and resolved to give them a trial more perhaps from curiosity than with a hope of being cured, however I soon found myself better by taking them, and so I went on persovering in their use for six months, when I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

The following beautital lines are copied from a MY LITTLE FRIEND.

Of such is the kingdom of Heaven. Often when I sit apart, Comes a yearning of the heart, With a sense of loneliness Hard to bear, or to express; Then of ill repaid affections Through the saddest recollections, And of friends I used to know Till the hour to prove them so ! Friendship then a fable seems. Love, the most absurd of dreams

Thus I sit and muse alone-Sudden comes a fairy face, Dimpling with a smile divine; Glides a tiny hand in mine, And a little arm is thrown Round my neck with winning grace ;

And a pair of sweet blue eyes Look in mine with quaint surprise, And a lip of roses pouts In assurance of a kiss-Care be hanged !-away with doubts ! Love is truth !- and life is blisa !

Potent as the frarp divine, David played to moody Saul, Comes her spirit upon mine, When of gloom the saddest thrall; And away the shadows run,

Like the clouds before the sun! Blessings on the little fairy,

Ten years had passed. One day the Court of Cessation, in its red robes, was descending the steps of the palace of justice, to be present at a public ceremony. All at once a female darts from the crowd, throws herself at the feet of the procureur general, seizes the end of his robe, and presses it to her lips. The woman was looked upon as deranged, and they tried to drag her away.

One day, I was unhappy then, I was advised to bring an action against a distant relation of my husband, who had possessed himself of a rich heritage that ought to have tallen to my children. Already I had sold half my goods to begin the action, when one evening I saw a gentleman enter my house who said to me.
