OLD FRIENDS TOGETHER.

BY CHARLES SWAIN, ESQ. Oh! time is sweet when roses meet, With Spring's sweet breath around them; And sweet the cost, when hearts are lost, If those we love have found the And sweet the mind that still can find A star in darkest weather: But nought can be so sweet to see As old friends met together !

Those days of old, when youth was bold, And Time stole wings to speed it, And youth ne'er knew how fast Time flew, Or, knowing, did not heed it! Though grey each brow that meets us now For age brings wintry weather, Yet nought can be so sweet to see

As those old friends together !

The few long known whom years have shewn With hearts that friendship blesses; A hand to cheer.—perchance, a tear, To soothe a friend's distresses; Who helped and tried, still side by side, A friend to face hard weather : h! this may we yet joy to see, And meet old friends together!
