WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1896. WEEKLY MONITOR, New Advertisements Frightened to Face the Music. New Advertisements. Fifty-Second Annual Session of the National Division Meets at Washington. DEAR EDITOR, -We have just returned from a very pleasant trip to Washington via Yarmouth and Boston. Our own "fruit valley" looked lovely as we passed through it. Surely we have an "Eden-land," and may well be proud of it. Yarmouth puts on a busy appearance on arrival and departure of boats. Their mam moth hotel does credit to the place. If all our provincial torum were as pushing as Yarmouth there would be less complaints of hard times. At the "Hub" we witnessed the the "hub-bub" on the 4th. Washington is indeed a beautiful city and Americans may well be proud of it. The wide avenues and streets-asphalt-laid, tree-lined and nightly swept-present a pleasing and attractive appearance, especially as yriewed from Washington Monument-556 feet above the surface, or from the dome to Soucers, cit, add additional life to the Capitol. The Smithaonian Institute is a great attraction to visitors, as is also the Capitol White House. All the publio build ing a large block and costing when complete in 1897 $3,000,000, is a magnificent structure. The 50,000 Christian Endeavorers, with their badges, etc., add additional life to the cry. Dur National Division Sons of Temperano tort. Soucers, C.W.S., J. L. Barrhill, P.G. Yet the thing has been doue with a rapidity and ease that speaks much for the detail of adminis-tration in the Spanish War office. All these men have been transported, equipped, and fed, at a terrible money cost for a country as poor as Spain, yet it has been done. The fatal blight seems to be on the army itself, not upon the Spanish Government. We know, of course, that operations in Cuba are enormously difficult at any time, and almost flatly impossible in the rainy season; yet, even so, the failure of successive generals has been so nearly complete, up to this time, as to argue a woeful lack of both discipline and capacity in men and officers. Although the sea-son is not the most convenient for many corps the minister thinks that as the camps have been expected, and both parties have advo-cated the training of all corps this year, it will best meet the views of all interested in the force to order samps for the earliest period which the appropriation will be avail-able. The minister hopes it will be possible to go into camp by September 15th, and for districts having two successive camps at one station, as is proposed for Nova Scotia, per-henefield.
