Death of John Henderson

St. John Telegraph: John Henderson, the well known C. G. R. baggage-master has passed away, after several months' illness. Mr. Henderson was one of St. John's best known and respected citizens and up until the time of his retirement, a short time ago, was a familiar figure in the Union depot. Mr. Hendeson's willingness to aid the travelling public, won for him many friends, who will learn of his death with sincere regret. Mr. Henderson, who was sixty-nine yeads old, leaves three sisters. Mrs. W. S. Lascelles, of Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. Thomas Dearness, of Bridgetown, N. S. and Miss Ella Henderson, at home; two brothers, James Henderson, of Danbury, Conn., and Fred W. Henderson, of Truro, N. S. The funeral took place from his late residence No. 9 Cobourg street, Thursday afternoon and was largely attended.
