

Canadian Poultry Review.

DEVOTED TO POULTRY AND PET STOCK.

Vol. 3.

STRATHROY, ONTARIO, DECEMBER, 1879.

No. 1.

THE ENGLISH SETTER DOG "PARIS,"

Property of L. H. Smith, Esq., Strathroy, Ontario, Canada.

With this number we give an engraving of the celebrated English Setter dog "Paris," owned by Mr. L. H. Smith, of Strathroy, Ontario. We make no apology for the picture, as it is a correct and admirable likeness of the dog, as all who have seen him will recognize. "Paris" has been exhibited in all parts of the United States and Canada, and we are safe in saying no dog has been seen by so many people, and none so well known. He was first exhibited in Detroit in 1875, and was then awarded a special prize; he was next shown at Memphis, Tenn., where he won a silver cup for the best Setter in the show. He has also won the following prizes:—Silver cup for the best Setter at the