The Committee have to remind the Church that Professor Lyall's and McKnight's salaries are paid by the Free Church of Scotland, and as the continuance of this kindness is not likely nor reasonable, in the altered circumstances of the United Body, preparation must be made to meet the increased demand, the moment intimation is given that the payment from Scotland is stopped. Our Church is quite able to rely upon her own energies. A fair trial, your Committee are confident, would show the truth of this remark

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Since the last issue of the Record, several letters have been received from our Missionaries in the South Seas,—all indicative of health and prosperity. Mr. Gordon writes under date of 28th October in a strain of more than usual cheerfulness. The word preached seems to be exercising some beneficial influence on the heathen of Eromanga though few if any of them have yet thrown away all their idols or forsaken all their abominable practices. The following letter from Mrs. Gordon will be read with interest throughout the Church. It is addressed to the Rev. P. G. McGregor.

EROMANGA, Sept. 29th, 1860.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—

It affords me much pleasure to write you in reply to your highly esteemed favor of November 1859, and to express my warmest thanks for your many expres-
