MERRY AND HAPPY.

Not a green Christmas but a real old-timer, white and frosty—nevertheless a happy Christmas. May the fire grow the redder in the grates of the poor and the hearts of the generous throb the faster. That the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and six be laden with blessings for us all—so mote it be.

DULCE DOMUM.

Home—the English claim theirs is the only language which has the word. The French retort that if they have not the word they have the thing itself. Amiable contention—for both can and do
