OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The new Roman Catholic weekly, the Catholic Review, is a neatly got-up paper, and its contents are well written and interesting. The Review is endorsed by Archbishop Lynch, but its own merits commend it even more forcibly. The first number contains an elaborate reply to THE MAIL by Mr. D.
A. O'Sullivan.—THE MAIL, Toronto.

We have received a number of the Catholic Weekly Review, a journal which has recently been started at Toronto.
This paper is devoted to the defence of the interests of the Catholic Church in Canada, and has adopted as its motto, those words of our Blessed Lord which define so nicely the distinction which should be made between the religious and the civil order. Reddite quæ sunt Cæsaris; Cæsari; et quæ sunt Dei Deo. Mgr. Lynch, Archbishop of Toronto, has written a beautiful letter of felicitation and encouragement to the founders of the work. The number we have before us is well edited and printed. We wish a long life and prosperity to our new confrere.—La Vérité, Quebec.

We have received the first copy of a new Catholic paper, entitled the Catholic Weekly Review, published at Toronto, Canada. It is a very neat twelve page little volume, laden with the golden fruit of Catholic truths, bearing its peaceful messages of literary researches to all persons who may desire it as a visitor to their homes. May our new contemporary prosper, and live long and happy.—WESTERN CATHOLIC, Chicago.
