

EVANGELISTIC BIBLE CLASS

Every SUNDAY, at 3 p.m.
Conducted by General Secretary.

ALL INVITED.

I HAVE so much business to do to-day that I shall not be able to get through with it with less than three hours of prayer.—Martin Luther.

HAD the doctrines of Jesus been preached always as pure as they came from his lips, the world would now have been Christian.—Thomas Jefferson.

THOSE who walk with God hear His voice, and He employs them. Reader, are you walking so near that you could hear His voice if He called? He uses those who are nearest to Him.

"THOU wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee." Peace is the result of a restful trust in God, and the enjoyment of peace is the privilege of every returned prodigal and of every other forgiven sinner.

THE Association cause was never so strong on this Continent as it is to-day. It never commanded so much money; it never had so firm a hold as now upon public sympathy; never have Association men seen so clearly as now that it is their overshadowing duty in these societies to labor primarily, chiefly, always for the salvation of young men; and never has the Great Head of the Church more richly blessed their efforts than in the year just closed.—International Committee, N. Y.
