

BIRTH.

On Thursday, the 23rd ult., the wife of Mr. Wm. Lea, of the Township of York of a son.

MARRIED.

In this city, on Tuesday, the 4th February inst., by the Rev. Edmund Baldwin, the Hon. John Ross of Belleville, to Augusta Elizabeth second daughter of the Hon. Robert Baldwin of Spadina, Her Majesty's Attorney General for Upper Canada.

DIED.

On the third instant, at Gates' Inn, Scarborough, of Paralysis, Tannatt Houston Thomson, Esq., Deputy Commissary General, aged 59 years.

At Green Terrace, St. John Street Road, London, England, on the 12th Nov., Bowyer Mewburn, Esq., Solicitor, aged 56: youngest son of the late Francis Mewburn, Esq., Surgeon, formerly of Whitby, and "the Howe," Danby Dale, Yorkshire, and brother of Dr. Mewburn, Danby House Stamford, N. D.

In our obituary of this week we record the death of Mrs. Isabella Campbell Roy, at her residence near Fort George. It is due to the memory of this estimable lady to say that her decease is deeply and universally regretted in the district, in which, for a period of sixty-five years, her qualities of heart and mind gained her a high place in the affections of all classes. Mrs Roy was a gentlewoman of the old school, in the highest meaning of that character, of refined manners, most engaging address, and of earnest and habitual piety. Her considerate and kindly attentions to the cottagers and the poor of her neighbourhood endeared her as much to them as her unceasing charities—distributed unostentatiously; evinced in this, as in all the relations of life, consistent kindness and true Christian principle. Though so advanced in years, her mind retained the sprightliness of youth; and among her friends her uniform kindness, cheerfulness, and urbanity, spread a charm over her society which will be long remembered. Mrs Roy was daughter of John Campbell, Esq. of Melfort, Governor of Fort George, whose family distinguished themselves in the service of their country; and by one despatch she received the painful intelligence of the death of three brothers, killed in action—two of them and a cousin-german in one engagement. General Stewart's history alludes to this melancholy circumstance, when referring to the conduct of the 74th regiment at the battle of Assaye:—"The Melfort family were very unfortunate this year. Three brothers fell in the field, Captain John Campbell, and Lieutenant Alex. and Lorn Campbell, as also a cousin-german, Lieut. Morshead Campbell, son of Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander Campbell, of the 74th regiment, afterwards Lieutenant-General Sir Alexander Campbell, G.C.B., Governor of Madras." Another brother, Lieutenant Colin Campbell, afterwards Lieutenant-General Sir Colin Campbell, G.C.B., was in the same action, on the staff; and having continued on the Duke of Wellington's staff, had the good fortune to be present in every engagement fought under his Grace's command in the Peninsula, and likewise at Waterloo. He died in 1847, having been Governor successively of Portsmouth, Halifax, and Ceylon. Another brother, the late Vice-Admiral Sir P. Campbell, K.C.B., distinguished himself in the navy. The only surviving brother of nine is Col. Frederick Campbell, R.A., now quartered at Woolwich, whom we saw witnessing our Highland games at Inverness last autumn, when on a visit to his excellent sister, whose death we record.—Inverness Courier.

The deceased was the eldest sister of Mrs. Fortye of this city.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

This article was originally prepared by Williams & Co., of Philadelphia. Now that this preparation is so well known, there will be, and now are, found those so villainously wicked as to concoct a spurious and perhaps poisonous mixture, and try to palm it off as the GENUINE BALSAM. We raise no false alarms.—We advise the public of the schemes, that their health may not be trifled with, nor ourselves plundered of our rights.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a

this disease it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action, and in many instances effected after known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect. The genuine is signed I. BUTTS.

ALTHOUGH this Society has mainly in view the intention of enabling members of the Church of England to contribute, by the payment of small periodical sums, towards either the endowment of a Church of England University, (in accordance with the recommendation of His Lordship the Bishop in his recent Pastoral Letter,) or the building and endowment of Churches, Parsonage Houses, and School Houses, in connexion with the Church of England—the Society, nevertheless does not contemplate restricting its operations to those objects only. On the contrary, like other Building Societies, the advantages of the Church of England and Metropolitan Building Society will be fully open to all parties, without distinction, who may choose to take Stock therein, either for investment—the acquisition of freehold or leasehold estate—the removal of incumbrances or liabilities upon property—or the privilege of borrowing the amount of their shares in advance, upon furnishing approved mortgage security. Printed copies of the By-Laws and Regulations can be obtained from the undersigned, at the Offices of the Society, Albany Chambers; and it is requested that all Communications be post paid. G. A. THE BRITISH PERIODICALS AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54, Gold Street New York, continues to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F.R.S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M.A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture, in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1,400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz.:

- The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig).
The North British Review, (Free-Church).
The Westminster Review, (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other Journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by M. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Table showing subscription rates for various reviews and magazines, including The London Quarterly Review, The Edinburgh Review, etc.

Payments to be made in all cases in Advance. Money, current in the States where issued, will be received at par.

Remittances and communications should be always, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers.
