Mercantile Summary.

MISS SUSAN A. KING, of New York, has displayed an amount of pluck and push as the Treasurer of the "Woman's Tea Company," of New York, that must establish her reputation as a business woman. She started off alone and unattended on a journey into China, penetrated the tea growing districts, where but few Europeans have been, selected the varieties of tea which pleased her and perfected her arrangements for importing them into the United States. After this the "Woman's Tea Company" ought to succeed.

THE CONDITION of trade in the United States is spoken favorably of by a Western commercial journal. It says:—"The manufacturing centers throughout the country are nearly all in full activity, and we have yet to hear of any complaints that are not incident to the season of the year. As a rule our factories are doing a fair business, and have orders on hand that will secure them at least a fair share of prosperity. Wages seem to be satisfactorily adjusted, and we hear of no serious complications or difficulties on this score, although the trades unions still keep up a show of agitation. The condition of the money market is easy, and is almost certain to continue so."
