

Table of Contents

Purpose and Introduction: Preparing for the Twenty-first Century	1
I. The Economic Environment: A Tougher World.....	3
II. International Trade in the Canadian Economy: Creating Jobs through Exports	6
III. Trade and Economic Policy:.....	10
(a) The Race to Sustain Competitiveness.....	10
(b) Macro-economic Policies: Creating the Right Environment	12
(c) Economic Development Policies: Promoting Competitive Indus- tries.....	17
IV. Sectoral Perspectives: Towards World-Class Industries	22
V. The Role of Commercial Policy:	27
(a) Maintaining and Improving Access to Markets	28
(b) Protecting an Adjusting Economy	29
(c) Export Controls Policy.....	31
VI. Developing Markets:	32
(a) Assisting Competitive Exports.....	32
(b) Providing Competitive Financing.....	34
(c) Developing Trade through Aid.....	34
VII. The International Institutional and Trade Environment: A Fragile Consensus	35
VIII. Managing Our Trading Relationships:.....	40
(a) The USA: Our Main Trading Partner.....	41
(b) The European Community: Building on Traditional Ties	47
(c) Japan: The Challenge of Diversification	47
(d) Developing Countries: Toward More Mature Relationships.....	48
(e) Other Countries: Maintaining Productive Ties.....	49
IX. Domestic Consultative Framework: Building a National Consensus ...	50