

Every University replied, and on the basis of these questionnaires, study of University calendars for 1970-1971, and correspondence which resulted from the original Report, the present supplement was prepared. Because of the relatively limited number of revisions for any one University, arrangement of the information in these same four general categories was thought to give sufficient definition to the data.

We wish to offer our sincere thanks for the generous co-operation of all those concerned in this field who sent us the necessary information.
