

many friends and one that is actively participating in various associations such as the Commonwealth, NATO and so on. Above all it is a nation with an idealistic, unselfish approach. I suggest that Canada can play a vital part in world affairs today, perhaps just as vital a part as any other nation in the world. These next ten years could be Canada's years in world affairs. This is the great challenge to Canadians, the challenge I should like to place before them this afternoon, and I offer this challenge particularly to those Canadians who from time to time represent the Canadian people in this Parliament.
