

Additional Recommendations

National and Consumer Interest

19. The Tariff Board should be empowered to undertake a review of decisions made by the anti-dumping tribunal, when so requested by consumer advocates, and when in the opinion of the Board it is in the national interest to do so. (27)

Capital Goods Sector

20. The sub-committee recommends further study of the unique problems of the capital goods sector. (29)

Institutional Issues

21. The sub-committee recommends the role of the current import agencies be examined in relation to one another. (31)

Public Disclosure

The legislation should contain provisions;

22. Outlining a greater disclosure of the information collected by Revenue Canada during an investigation and the reasoning underlying its decisions. (34)

23. That all confidential information be accompanied by a non-confidential summary which indicates its general nature. (34)

24. That the government be given the right to disregard any confidential information not accompanied by non-confidential summaries. (34)

25. That the government review all information claimed to be confidential in order to verify that it must remain so. If it does not appear to be of a type that must be confidential, steps should be taken to convince the company to re-classify the information. (34)
