

Orders for Returns

Hon. Robert Stanbury (Minister without Portfolio): 1. The object of the "Federal presence" or "federalism" program is to encourage Canadians to take a more active part both in informing themselves on the nature and operation of social and political structures of the country and in participating in their development. To this end, Information Canada, will produce some information through exhibitions, films and the printed word to focus thought on Canada, its regions, its people and its national institutions. It will also give any encouragement within its power to the federal service, to business and industry, voluntary organizations or individuals concerned with achieving a greater public awareness of Canadian identity.

2. No research projects in this field are under way. In course of preparation are: (a) a publication on how parliament works being written in consultation with representatives of all federal political parties; (b) a series of pamphlets on services of the federal government; (c) an animated film being produced by the National Film Board which touches on themes of government in a pluralistic society; (d) a series of exhibitions touching upon pluralism, the federal constitution and federal services.

MOTION TO ADJOURN UNDER S.O. 26THE CANADIAN ECONOMY*INADEQUACY OF GOVERNMENT POLICIES IN PROVIDING EMPLOYMENT ALLEGED BY MEMBER FOR DUVERNAY

Mr. G. W. Baldwin (Peace River): Mr. Speaker, pursuant to Standing Order 26 I ask leave to move the adjournment of the House to discuss a specific and important matter requiring urgent consideration. This matter arises out of the statement made yesterday by the hon. member for Duvernay (Mr. Kierans), in further explanation of his resignation from the government, that the policies of the government are completely inadequate for the purpose of providing employment for the hundreds of thousands of people without jobs. The resignation of the hon. member and the reasons given by him for that resignation accentuate the urgency of an immediate debate.

Mr. Speaker: The hon. member for Peace River has filed with the Chair the notice required under Standing Order 26. In the brief statement which the hon. member
