

The Budget—Mr. Garneau

Mulroney) in Vancouver. I was there as representative of my political Party. His was a very firm commitment to set up a day care system and provide the necessary funding. Nothing about that in the Budget.

Mr. Speaker, I think—

● (1730)

[English]

There is nothing for day care. There is nothing for fishermen. There is nothing for farmers. The tourist industry will be badly hurt by another increase in the price of gasoline. The tax of $4 more on an air ticket is a real Crosbie tax.

I think that the Government and the Minister of Finance should be ashamed. I will have much more to say, but for the time being I move:

[Translation]

That the debate be now adjourned.

Mr. Speaker: Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

On motion of Mr. Garneau, debated adjourned.

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to order made Friday, January 30, 1987, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 3(1).

The House adjourned at 5.33 p.m.

---