Dear Sir Arthur,

I landed at Montreal and immediately proceeded here on Monday. The purpose of this letter is formally to report my arrival in Canada.

I saw Dr Todd to-day and I gathered from him that the course in Medical Parasitology had been discontinued since his retirement. As you know, I have been teaching this subject for the past twelve years in London & Edinburgh (both for students from the tropics and those taking the Diploma in Public Health) and I shall be more than pleased to give whatever assistance I can in a similar manner here. I have brought with me a very complete teaching collection (human, veterinary, and agricultural) so that if it is possible to revive the
