

member whose conduct has been proved to be such as to bring the Club into disrepute, or to be at variance with those objects the Club has been formed to carry out.

XI.—Members shall be in honor bound to further and support the cause of Fish and Game Protection to the best of their ability, and will be required to report to the Secretary or President any infraction of the laws provided for the protection of Fish and Game which may come under their observation or to their knowledge.

XII.—Any three members in concert shall have power to cause the President or Secretary to call a special meeting of the members or of the Committee, on making a requisition to that effect, and stating the object for which such meeting shall be called.

XIII.—By Laws shall be made amended or annulled, at a general meeting called specially for that purpose. The notices calling such meeting shall be issued three days in advance, and shall specify the business to be submitted, and the assent of two thirds of those present shall be required. Eleven persons shall form a quorum at this and other general meetings.