

INDEX

- culty of obtaining funds, 69-70, 72; state aid, 71; mismanagement, 72; Galt's handling of affairs, 73; construction, 74-5; incorporated as the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada East, 95; 99
- St. Mary's River Railway, 567-9
- Strachan, Dr. John, 18, 19, 26, 217
- Sullivan, R. B., 162, 269
- Sydenham, Lord, 114, 117, 125-7, 161, 174
- Taché, E. P., 84, 100, 162, 175, 193, 195-6, 358-9, 362, 398
- Tariff, under old Colonial System, 59; repeal of imperial preference, 151-2, 326-7; reciprocity with British North American colonies, 172; reciprocity with U. S., 182, 286-98; high tariff of 1859, 267-8; growth of protectionist sentiment, 268-9; lowering of rates in 1862, 271-3, 275-8; ad valorem principle, 273-4; Cayley tariff, 268, 326; interference with colonial tariff by imperial authorities, 327-9; repudiated by Galt, 329-31; trade negotiations with France, 332-3; reciprocity treaty abrogated by U. S., 298-9, 377; renewal sought, 386, 390-4, 399; tariff of 1866, 395-7; demand for customs union with U. S., 296, 298-9, 456; attempt to secure reciprocity in return for fishing privileges, 461; imperial preference plans, 527-8, 533-4, 571-4; tariff negotiations in Europe, 518-22, 535-6
- Taschereau, Archbishop, 478-9, 491
- Thompson, John S. D., 506
- Thornton, Sir Edward, 498, 499
- Tilley, S. L., 418, 520
- Tilloch, Gertrude, mother of A. T. Galt, 6
- Times*, London, 304, 307, 319, 345-6
- Toronto and Guelph Railway, 96
- Torrance, Amy Gordon, Lady Galt, 156, 576
- Torrance, Elliott, 156
- Torrance, John, 64, 69, 88, 153, 155
- Trent* Affair, 312-3, 316-7, 320-1, 338
- Tupper, Sir Charles, mission to England re Intercolonial Railway, 244, 250; 365; 376; 401; 415; 418, 420, 428; alliance with Macdonald, 431; mission to England to hold Nova Scotia in the Union, 433-5; opposes independence, 448-9; tariff negotiations, 535; views on imperial federation, 533; succeeds Galt as High Commissioner, 547
- Ultramontanism, triumph in Europe, 471-5; doctrine of papal infallibility adopted, 474; rise of ultramontaniam in Quebec, 475-7; Guibord case, 476; interference in politics, 477 seq.; Catholic Programme, 477-8; condemnation of Catholic Liberals, 479-81; aims of the hierarchy, 480; Macdonald's analysis of situation, 482-3; formation of Protestant Defence Association, 484; Galt's opposition, 484, 488-9; and its effect, 485-6; defeat of Ultramontaniam in Charlevoix election, 491; condemnation by Rome of clerical interference in politics, 492
- United Kingdom, military claims after War of 1812, 9-10, 13-14; last years of the old Colonial System, 58-9, 148-52; annexationist attitude toward Great Britain, 154; interference in Clergy Reserves matter, 180; federation memorials of 1858, 239-44; indifference to federation question, 246-53; and consequent postponement, 254; attitude toward United States in Civil War, 301-22; development of colonial autonomy, 324 seq.; in internal affairs, 324-6; in tariff matters, 326-