ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Unanimously Decided to Keep Same Board for Ensuing Year.

Two hundred members of the Ward Six Conservative Association at the annual nomination meeting in Mullin's Hall, Bloor and Lansdowne, last night unanimously decided to contribute a minimum sum of twenty-five cents monthly for a period of four months to the Patriotic Fund of the association, which has for its main object the care of returned soldiers. President Thomas Rooney, in announcing this as one of the recommendations of the executive committee, appealed to the members to show their appreciation and sympathy in this way if they were unable to fight and he was of the opinion that between $1500 and the opinion that between $1500 and $1800 would be realized. The suggestion was met with en-thusiasm, and a large number present signified their intention of The president also appealed to em-ployers of labor in the ward to do their utmost for the incapacitated soldiers returning from the war. He said that twenty-one were already registered on the books of the association and a large number would be returning in the immediate future. He emphasized the fact that it was part of the duty of the members to look after these men. Mr. Rooney, speaking on party mat-ters, made an emphatic denial of a the sentence given Frederick Pollock ters, made an emphatic denial of a statement attributed to Gordon Wal-dron at a recent meeting of the Ward tering houses and stealing diamonds Six Liberal Association to the effect that the Conservative party was leaving nothing undone to enter the battle as soon as the call comes for the government to go to the country. "That statement is totally untrue," declared Mr. Rooney. "The Conservative party has other things to think about and as far as Ward Six Conservatives are concerned they are devoting their atnounced. tention to nothing but patriotic work."

Hon. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., paid tribute to the work which was being accomplished by the organization and warned them that the most serious happenings in the war had yet to take
