

Fortrefs of Louisbourg into the hands of our gracious Sovereign, through the Blessing of Thy Providence on the Conduct and Courage of those, whom he hath employed in the Defence of our just Rights. Not unto Us, O Lord, not unto Us, unworthy Sinners, but to Thy Name, be the Glory.
 Blessed be our strong Helper, and praised be the God of our Salvation: even the God, who seeth that we be avenged, and subdueth the People unto us. Cause, we beseech Thee, O King of Kings, the Arrogancy of the Proud to cease, and lay low the haughtiness of the Terrible: Make Peace in our Borders, and those of our Allies; and dispose the hearts of all, who profess themselves Christians, to Justice and Equity and brotherly Love; that Thy Name may be glorified, and the benevolent Purposes of Thy Gospel attained, first on this Earth, then for ever in heaven, through the Merits and Mediation of Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.
