

return to our homes or employments and not be duped by the wicked ones.

I will say no more at present, countrymen, but leave you to decide; and that you may decide on uniting firmly with the Canadians is the sincere wish of

A TRUE IRISHMAN.

[The following text is extremely faint and illegible, appearing to be a long letter or speech.]