

pied by him, and hung up in the public room of the Institution.

LXV. The Committee shall be empowered to call a general meeting, when they may think it necessary or expedient to alter any of the laws or regulations, of which notice shall be given by an intimation hung up in the Reading Room at least a week previous to such meeting—at the same time by an advertisement in at least two or more of the Public Journals of this city, at the discretion of the Committee.

LXVI. Every proposition for altering the rules or orders, which shall be carried at any such general meeting, shall be copied by the Secretary and hung up in the public rooms of the Institution until next general meeting, when if again carried, it shall be incorporated with the rules and orders.

LXVII. No resolution for breaking up the Institution, or alienating any part of its property, shall be passed, unless it is not only proposed in the manner above provided, but consented to at two general meetings by at least nine-tenths of the members present, and who amount to $\frac{2}{3}$ ths of the whole Society.

LIBRARY.

LXVIII. The Committee of Managers shall have the power of appointing a Sub-Committee for the management of the Library and News-Room, and of establishing such regulations as they may deem necessary for affording the members the freest use of the books and newspapers, consistent with their safe keeping and the general convenience.

LECTURES.

LXIX. The Courses of Lectures shall be under the direction of the Committee of Managers, and shall be announced in a paper hung up in the public room of the Institution.

SCHOOLS.

LXX. The Committee of Managers shall, as soon as