

ally suited to afford comfort to Christians. Your first business is with your state as lost sinners before God, and how you may escape the wrath to come. Upon this vitally important point all is clear. You are to break of your sins by righteousness. You are to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved. In a state of salvation, the doctrine of election will not perplex you. By the happiness of heaven and the woes of hell, I would urge you all to duty. Thus only can you be happy in time, and glorified throughout eternity. Lord increase our faith. Amen.
