

be-committee of the cabinet which ad conferred with the deputation om Toronto, had violated a trust hen he gave out his report to the ress. Continuing, the speaker con-atulated Dr. Sheard, member for buth Toronto, upon his effort on bethe carriers, and stated that freight rate increase is to notify the mercahnts and manufacturers, who the doctor had made a better right for labor than many labor men. "It could then make proper representation Dr. Sheard is as assiduous in his ef-forts on behalf of labor upon the floor of the house of commons he may be fairs before the rates were increased. This, however, was an emergency case. sure of retaining the confidence of labor in a certain riding in Toronto," said Mr. and we rather anticipated it because of information received in June of the (Pt. II.). demands of organized labor. The an-nouncement was not a surprise to us, Attacks Mr. Carvell. speaker continued his onslaught upon Hon. Frank Carvell, and stated that the latter had no authorbut contracts made under the present ity to accuse labor of any lack of patriotism. "We agree with Mr. Car-vell to a certain point," said Mr. Ste-vell to a certain point," said Mr. Ste-

ice (Pt. II.),

have nothing more to say at the pre-sent time," said the captain, who added day at Port a Binson and advanced that he was preparing a statement to hand out to the press, which might heir line at that point. British raiding parties have been lowing acts: Roy and Arthur, in "Fun in a Restaurant"; Louis Lon-

Toronto proved conclusively that it has not lost its voice. Cheer after cheer followed many of the pictures. The French were greeted with loving applause, and the Yankees with noisy value don, the singing comedian; Juno Salyells. Tears as well as cheers mingl hand out to the press, which might probably be ready on Sunday. Inside the buoy, near the shore on the American side, where the captain declared he was when netified, if is practically a narrow channel, and ther was no room to turn round eace his is why n vices, an d woman, v the world, m in a n e can in why lovin vell to a certain point," said Mr. Ste-venson, "when he denounces strikes, but when the government allows some men to pile up millions in pro-fits out of the war and permits a condition to arise in which the workcondition to arise in which the workof trade. ingmen have to fight for a living wage, the same workingmen may reserve the right to strike." Mr. Stevenson congratulated the two delegates from the Carriers' Association for signing the agreement with the government. "If such leaders of your association as these men believe your interests are delegates from the Carriers' Associa- vitation accepted by thirty returned tion upon their stand against the per-suasions of the government. "Mr. the Central and Davisville. The names suasions of the government. Mr. the Central and Davisville- The hames Wellman is to be congratulated for his tiger fight against the arguments of the cabinet committee," said the doc-the cabinet committee, to the to the Well and Ptes. E. E. Woods, B. the cabinet committee," said the doc-tor. "And he and I will fight to the end, and I do not doubt Mr. McMor-die will be able to help quite a little bit. Union government or no Union government I am first and last for the honest working man."

home is in Buffalo, but who is staying has arisen in connection with the clerks in the west. These clerks are said to have gone out on strike because they do not agree with the of Carlaw and Langley avenues, jump-policy of the government relating to ed off the cart when the horse bolted. postoffice employes. Sunday's session was informal, and few were Tuesday evening which will take de-

RIVERDALE BRANCH

HAD JOLLY PICNIC

Riverdale branch of the Great War Veterans' Association held a picnic to Dr. Sheard congratulated the two feature of the occasion was the in-600 members and relatives, and the Wentworth. 1. P. Beamer (Pt. 1., Honors), M. L. Coon (Pt. I.), R. E. Dyment (Pt. 1.), J. E. H. Elliott (Pt. 1.), M. I. Forbes (Pt. I., Hopkins (Pt. I.), B. E. Jarvis (Pt. II., Honors), M. J. Johnston (Pt. I.), J. E. Jolly (Pt. I.; Honors), M. N. Lamb (Pt. I.), H. O. McAndrew (Pt. I.), M. E. Mc-Culloch (Pt. I., Honors), R. E. Nummery (Pt. II., Honors), S. R. E. Nummery (Pt. II., Honors), S. E. Reinke (Pt. II., Honors), S. S. R. Ross (Pt. B), H. M. Smith (Pt. I.), V. F. Smith (Pt. I., Honors), E. H. Turner (Pt. II., with Pt. I. Physics), E. Witherspoon (Pt. A). York.

and Dearce, all of the Gentral Correlation of the Gentral Correlation of the Gentral Correlation of the Control of Correlation o

William Hyndman, aged 14, whos

WORKMAN INJURED.

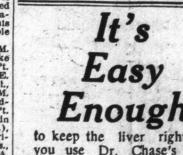

with his uncle at 484 Pape avenue while riding in a wagon at the corner Lewis Porter, aged about 30 years, a plumber, of 272 Spadina avenue, while fixing a pipe in a lane at the rear of He was attended to by Dr. E. R. Hast-72 Bathurst street Saturday morning ings, of 791 East Queen street, and about 10.30, broke his ankle when the A meeting is called for afterwards taken to St. Michael's Hos-evening which will 'ake de- pital, where his injuries were found to struck him on the foot. He was reconsist of a broken leg. moved to the General Hospital.

Simcoe. J. M. Atkins (Pt. I.), M. A. Bennett (Pt. II., Honors), H. E. Brandon (Pt. II.), G. G. Beadle (Pt. II.), N. C. Cooper (Pt. I.), E. L. Crone (Pt. II., Honors), N. A. De Hart (Pt. II.), E. J. Edwards (Pt. II.), J. Joyce (Pt. I., Honors), A. K. Kembar (Pt. II.), G. C. McLean (Pt. I.), D. H. Noy (Pt. L.), A. Robertson (Pt. I.), K. C. Stevenson (Pt. I.), C. B. Smith (Pt. I.), H. M. Turner (Pt. IL), B. Trott (Pt. I.), and II.).

A. Chambers (Pt. IL), B. And and IL). A. Chambers (Pt. IL), M. M. Coumans (Pt. IL), A. J. Dobie (Pts. A & B), G. D. Darker (Pt. IL), W. J. Duncan (Pt. I.), G. E. Humphries (Pt. IL), H. E. Jourdan (Pt. IL), F. I. Kennedy (Pt. I., Honors, Pt. IL), H. M. MacLean (Pt. I.), M. R. Moncrieff (Pt. II.), M. R. Nichol (Pt. I., Honors), A. E. Noble (Pt. I.), E. O'Meara atur-(Pt. I.). (Pt. C), M. O. Wismer (Pt. I.), G. M. Wodehouse (Pt. IL), D. E. Wightman (Pt. I.). (Pt.

ere was no room to turn round once

In response to a .. call from P. C Clarke at Hanlan's Point about 6.50 Saturday evening, the life crew had a run to the sw saving crew had a run the swimming pool at Hanlan's Point where named S. Mandellson of 43 Grange avenue, who was in swimming, had cut his foot very badly on

You soon know it when the liver is awakened by this treatment, for headache, billiousness and stomach troubles disappear and you feel fine. This is an easy prescription for health and happiness.

his vessel got inside the buoy, and it The railway junction at Fere-en-meant that he would have had to back out, or run the risk of grounding. The latest advance of the allied armies

Inite was no room to thirn round once his vessel got inside the buoy, and it meant that he would have had to back out, or run the risk of grounding.
Captain Smith is one of the old-timers on the lakes, and has been for the past twenty-five years in charge of the past eight years in charge of the Cayuga.30,000.Fathe News weekly.WRONG ADDRESS GIVEN.The railway junction at Fere-en-Tardenoic is seriously threatened by the latest advance of the allied armies
on the Marne sector.
Heavy damages were caused by British airmen durin the last week, as they dropped 154 tons of bombs on German territory and at Zeebrugge and Ostend.The story of a woman's sacrifice is unmasked in "Panthea," starring Norma Talmadge, the screen star of distinction, heading this week's offerings at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden. The play inroduces the star in a role made famous on the stage by Mme. Olga Petrova, and gives her the best chance of her career to make the most of her emotional powers. "Just Official" a whiriv-

King George bids farewell to visit-ing premiers and expresses hope that the Prince of Wales may visit the the Prince of Wales may visit the dominions after the war. Reliable, reports indicate that the Ed. J. Moore & Co., in moments of Russian people are threatened with hilarious mystification; the Mahoney Bros., smart entertainers; Harry La starvation and awful suffering tins coming winter. Hon-C. J. Doherty has notified all postmen still out on strike that no body not responsible to parliament can be allowed to fix civil servants salaries. LOCAL. Mrs. Ada Childs and her three-year-old son, Alfred, wife and child of a

Mrs. Ada Childs and her three-year-old son, Alfred, wife and child of a soldier overseas, were found asphyxi-ated in their home, 55 Curzon street, on Saturday afternoon. A gas jet in the room was found turned on. Edward Sampsen, of 151 Sackville street, a painter of the Toronto Ship-building Co., was drowned in the bay on Saturday afternoon. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has voiced strong objections to not having been duly notified of the putting into force of the new in-creased freight rates.

ESCAPE THE CITY HEAT.

When the breathless days and glaring heat of summer make life in the ing heat of summer make life in the city a burden, the Algonquin Park of Ontario is a place of refuge and en-chantment. This great reserve of nearly four thousand square miles is on the very ridge of the "Highlands of Ontario." Its altitude above sea level averages 1,700 feet, while some of the lakes in the park are 2,000 feet above the sea. The lake land breares which the sea. The lake-land breezes which sweep over the park are impregnated with the life-giving frangrance of the pine woods. The days are unusually long and the evenings are always de-lightfully cool. Splendid boating and fishing and charming woodland trails are among the attractions. The ho-tels in the park are peculiarly fitted to tels in the park are peculiarly fitted to their wild environment and give excel-lent service at moderate rates. The largest of these, the "Highland Inn," is situated at Algonquin Fark Station, and overlooks beautiful Cache Lake. For full information apply to any Grand Trunk agent.

COLLIDED WITH WAGON.

Donald Howard McKinnon, aged 27 years, of 602 Palmerston avenue, while driving a motor car the property of the Pinkerton Auto Livery, 449 College street, for whom he was employ-ed as a driver, ran into a farmer's wagon on which was a load of hay. In some manner the pole of the wag-on struck his head. He was removed to the Toronto General Hospital where his condition was stated late Saturday afternoon to be critical, and he was still in an unconscious condition. The accident happened on the Lake Shore road near Long Branch.

Pathe News weekly

of big, gripping, thrilling scenes—all packed into seven rushing reels— would be ample in itself to lift any ordinary production into the very front rank. The story is packed with human appeals that must interest men and women of every condition of life. It has i's message for us all, and not least for those of us whose daily bread is too often bedewed with tears by reason of the grinding in-iquities of the food profiteers.

Aquilies of the food profiters. Madge Kennedy at Madison. Brilliant Madge Kennedy is the star of "The Service Flag," the fine Goldwyn photodrama to be present-ed at the Madison Theatre today, to-morrow and Wednesday. While the photoplay is not a war play, it com-bines the hopes, and fears, and pray-ers of every woman who has sent a man overseas. man overseas. "Johnny Get Your Gun."

Johnny Wiggins, the cowboy, mov-ing-picture actor, in "Johnny Get. Your Gun," will next week, commencing Monday evening. Public," the great William Fox pro-duction, starring Enid Markey and Ralph Lewis, to be shown at the Strand Theatre today, tomorrow and drama nine better, for it is a ten-strike. Every one of its half-score melong Monday evening, at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, called Can-ada's coolest theatre, determine and demonstrate just how a family of so-ciety bitten people should be run. Reserve sea's will be placed on sale Thursday morning. Matinees Wed-nesday and Saturday. Public," the great William Fox pro-duction, starring Enid Markey and Ralph Lewis, to be shown at the Strand Theatre today, tomorrow and Wednesday, goes the average melo-drama nine battor to the target melothe

"You Just Make Me Feel Reckless!"

> HIS is what Ruth Hackett said to her husband during his constant fits of jealousy.

> Ruth was entirely innocent of flirting with another man. But all that she could say in selfdefence, would not shake Brian Hackett's unreasonable suspicions.

> And we all know that "what's the use?" feeling that comes when we have "the name without the game"-that feeling that we might just as well have the game!

> But does Brian actually drive Ruth to a point of recklessness where she is foolish enough to smile upon another man? Or does her strong, fine womanhood stand guard against such folly?

You can find out by reading "The Wife," which starts Monday in The Toronto World.

rule than as we are at present, are recommended to see this picture and quickly change their minds.

War Gar

SUED BY "All togeth It is not a drive with the are not even Canadians canadians good at hoei start out wi vegetables ar teason advan to be din

D

As a matt ath bot always after