

RASPUTIN'S SLAYER IN UNITED STATES

Dr. de Lazever, Who Claims Authorship of Deed, Arrives.

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 22.—Claiming to be one of five men who shot and killed Gregory Rasputin, the Russian monk and "power behind the Russian throne," Dr. de Lazever, formerly a confidant in the Russian army, arrived here tonight on a British liner. Dr. de Lazever said the other four assassins, all of whom are now dead, were Grand Duke Dimitri Pavlovski, another grand duke whom he declined to name, M. Tschotchenko, captain of the guard, and M. Pourshekoatch.

TWO SHOTS AT TROTSKY FIRED BY KURSK SOLDIER

Boleslav Leader Narrowly Escapes Assassination. Amsterdam, Sept. 22.—An attempt has been made at Kursk to assassinate Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war and according to reports to a despatch sent from Kiev by the correspondent of the Leipzig Abend Zeitung.

RUTHLESS PERSECUTION OF ALLIED NATIONALS

Amsterdam, Sept. 22.—The Russian people's commissary at Volodga, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Hamburg Nachrichten, has urged on the population of the entire Volodga province the most ruthless persecution of British subjects and French and American citizens.

JAP CABINET RESIGNS

Tokio, Sept. 22.—The Japanese cabinet, headed by Field-Marshal Count Terauchi, which had held office since October, 1916, resigned today.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

From Palestine, Serbia and Ploce important news has come of further important steps in the downfall of the German-Turkish right wing and in Palestine the principal remaining army of Turkey has received its death blow. In Serbia the allies are on the point of expelling the Bulgarians from a large slice of territory and of throwing Nish and Sofia open to an advance. In Ploce the British army has just completed a rapid and more rapid rate.

Not the Men to Do the Job.

Canada has embarked on the policy of public ownership of railways. The people of Canada are firmly behind the policy, and they are the ones to make the policy and to see it carried out.

GEORGE E. BRISTOL CALLED BY DEATH

Was One of Hamilton's Most Prominent Citizens and Philanthropists. Hamilton, Sept. 22.—George E. Bristol, head of the firm of George E. Bristol and Company, died here early this morning at his late residence, 51 Herkimer street. While he had been ailing for years with heart trouble, the end was unexpected and death took place before medical assistance could be rendered.

Born in Napanee, Ont., the son of the late Dr. George Bristol, Mr. Bristol was one of the city's prominent citizens, philanthropic givers and energetic business men. He was a past president of the Hamilton Board of Trade and always took a keen interest in matters pertaining to the welfare of the city. Mr. Bristol came to Hamilton as a young man in the employ of the firm of Lucas, Parke and Company, of which he eventually became a partner. In 1882 the business was reorganized under the name of Lucas, Steele and Bristol. Upon the formation of the Canada Grocers Limited, he went to Toronto as its president. Five years later when the business was dissolved, Mr. Bristol returned to Hamilton and took over the old business with which he had been connected, buying out the interests of his former partners, the late R. A. Lucas and R. T. Steele.

In church affairs Mr. Bristol was extremely active and at one time was instrumental in raising a fund of $40,000 for the aged clergymen of the Anglican Church. He was a member of All Saints' Church and served for years. He served as a lay delegate to the synod. Surviving him are his widow, who is a sister of the late Dr. James White, one of Major Everett Bristol, C. M. G., secretary to Sir Edward Kemp and two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Benson and Miss Marjorie at home.

RIVERDALE THOUSANDS TENDED BROADVIEW BOYS' FAIR

The Broadview Boys' Fall Fair, S.O.E. Year, was brought to a successful close on Saturday evening at the Y.M.C.A. building, Broadview avenue, with a record attendance of 8000 spectators. The chief features of the proceedings were the athletic sports, the exhibition of diving and swimming, given by Miss Prichard of the Royal Life Saving Society, which attracted much attention.

THOS. HART DIES

The death is announced of Thomas Hart of 1282 Lansdowne avenue, Earlscourt, who died at his home on Saturday afternoon after a long illness.

LEASIDE LEASIDE HARVEST FESTIVAL

St. Cuthbert's Anglican Church, Leaside, annual harvest festival, will be held on Thursday evening, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. The festival will be made, the rector of Scarboro will be made, the rector of Scarboro will be continued on Sunday next.

ROAD IS BAD

Considerable dissatisfaction is felt in the Todmorden district regarding the neglected state of the Don Mills road. The road is in a state of disrepair, and the commission admit liability to keep the road in repair according to the stipulations of the Todmorden Ratepayers' Association, and a promise to put the road in good repair was made by the authorities some time ago, but no action has been taken.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Scarboro Village SCHOOL EXHIBIT A GREAT SUCCESS

Held at Scarboro Village Under Auspices of Two Rural School Sections. A splendid exhibit of all the products of the farm, together with a record attendance, were the outstanding features of Friday's big rural school fair at Scarboro Village, under the auspices of school sections 9 and 10, with E. J. Sack, Miss Irwin, Miss Strunk and Miss Orr in active and won more prizes at the exhibition than any other school in Toronto. J. A. McLean is the principal, assisted by E. K. Dargavel, principal's assistant.

NEIGHBORS ASSISTING BURNED-OUT FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hearn of Renhold road, North Earlscourt, who lost the entire contents of their home, with all the furniture, on Friday, when it was destroyed by fire, are now being cared for by neighbors, who have shown a fine spirit of sympathy. Mr. Hearn is a returned man and was gassed at St. Julien. He also had a brother-in-law who died from his wounds. He is employed at Leaside munition works, and the man there will take up collection for a few days. The local G.W.V.A. and ladies' auxiliary have also assisted the family, and Rev. Peter Brown is taking a special interest in their welfare.

TELLS OF THE WORK AMONG COAST INDIANS

Missionary work among the Indians and white people along the coast of British Columbia was the subject of the address by Rev. J. D. Simpson, of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at the Central Baraboo Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Danforth MEMORIAL SERVICE

A special memorial service was held at St. Matthew's Anglican Church, first avenue, yesterday, for Pte. Albert Edwards, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917. Rev. Dr. Seagar, rector, officiated.

EDWARD WINES WOUNDED AND NOW IN HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wines of Earlscourt avenue have received word that their son, Edward, has been wounded in the neck from a bullet striking him and is now in an English hospital. Mr. Wines is a member of the Earlscourt Wesleyan Methodist Church, and is a member of the Earlscourt Wesleyan Methodist Church in Germany.

HUSBAND IS KILLED AND ONE SHOCKED

Mrs. White of Hatherly road, North York, has received word that her husband, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917. Mrs. White is a member of the Earlscourt Wesleyan Methodist Church.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY

The Toronto office of the Epworth League held a rally service at Hope Methodist Church, Danforth, yesterday, for the late Pte. Albert Edwards, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917.

FIRST HARVEST HOME

The first harvest home in connection with the Epworth League was held yesterday. The interior of the church was decorated with vegetables, fruit and flowers, and Rev. E. Stoodley, pastor, preached to crowded congregations.

Brampton ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Never in the history of the Unionville Lutheran Evangelical Church have the harvest home anniversary services been so successful. The services were held at the church on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 22, and were attended by a large number of people.

MRS. McCALLUM DIES

Mrs. Nell McCallum died at her home, first line east, Queen street, Mrs. McCallum, who was formerly Miss Evans, was born in England about 21 years ago. She was employed as a maid in the household of a prominent family in Toronto, and was married to Mr. McCallum in 1880. She was a devoted wife and mother, and is survived by her husband, eight children, and a large number of grandchildren.

DEATH OF J. W. MARSHALL

John William Marshall, who came to Brampton from England about 21 years ago, died Saturday in his fifty-ninth year. He was employed as a machinist, and was a member of the R.A.F. in Toronto.

ANNUAL FAIR IS HELD AT EARLSCOURT SCHOOL

The annual fair of the Earlscourt Public School, North Dufferin street, took place on Saturday. There was an unusual display of products of all kinds, including vegetables and fruits, poultry, many varieties of apples and Delawares and Irish Coddler potatoes.

NEIGHBORS ASSISTING BURNED-OUT FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hearn of Renhold road, North Earlscourt, who lost the entire contents of their home, with all the furniture, on Friday, when it was destroyed by fire, are now being cared for by neighbors, who have shown a fine spirit of sympathy.

TELLS OF THE WORK AMONG COAST INDIANS

Missionary work among the Indians and white people along the coast of British Columbia was the subject of the address by Rev. J. D. Simpson, of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at the Central Baraboo Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Danforth MEMORIAL SERVICE

A special memorial service was held at St. Matthew's Anglican Church, first avenue, yesterday, for Pte. Albert Edwards, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917.

EDWARD WINES WOUNDED AND NOW IN HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wines of Earlscourt avenue have received word that their son, Edward, has been wounded in the neck from a bullet striking him and is now in an English hospital.

HUSBAND IS KILLED AND ONE SHOCKED

Mrs. White of Hatherly road, North York, has received word that her husband, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY

The Toronto office of the Epworth League held a rally service at Hope Methodist Church, Danforth, yesterday, for the late Pte. Albert Edwards, who was killed in action on Sept. 14, 1917, and died from wounds on Sept. 23, 1917.

FIRST HARVEST HOME

The first harvest home in connection with the Epworth League was held yesterday. The interior of the church was decorated with vegetables, fruit and flowers, and Rev. E. Stoodley, pastor, preached to crowded congregations.

Brampton ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Never in the history of the Unionville Lutheran Evangelical Church have the harvest home anniversary services been so successful. The services were held at the church on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 22, and were attended by a large number of people.

MRS. McCALLUM DIES

Mrs. Nell McCallum died at her home, first line east, Queen street, Mrs. McCallum, who was formerly Miss Evans, was born in England about 21 years ago. She was employed as a maid in the household of a prominent family in Toronto, and was married to Mr. McCallum in 1880.

DEATH OF J. W. MARSHALL

John William Marshall, who came to Brampton from England about 21 years ago, died Saturday in his fifty-ninth year. He was employed as a machinist, and was a member of the R.A.F. in Toronto.

Service Clothes Made to Your Measure

Extraordinary Opportunity The September Reduction Sale presenting pre-war productions in high-class imported British wools at Substantial Discounts

Suits, Semi-Dress, Morning Coat and Waistcoat—English black or grey Llama cloth—Regular $45.00 for $37.50

R. Score & Son, Limited Tailors and Haberdashers, 77 King Street West

ONTARIO CASUALTIES

Infantry: Drayton: D. L. MacDonald, McLennan, Lewis, Ringwood, A. Donaldson, Fenlon, Falls: H. Kilmarston, Bouton, O. Deschamps, Morrisburg: F. G. Laplante, Dryden: L. N. G. Jordan, 13 Kingston road, Toronto: W. W. White, Woodstock: L. Player, Stratford: Capt. S. H. Brockhouse, 22 St. George street, Toronto: P. Dexter, 113 Bathurst street, Toronto

FRENCH RAID GERMAN LINES IN CHAMPAGNE

Two Enemy Raids on Vesle River Front Repulsed With Heavy Artillery Fire. Paris, Sept. 22.—North of the Aisne and in the region of St. Quentin there was quite heavy artillery activity during the night, says the French War Office statement today. French detachments raided the German lines in the Champagne and Lorraine. Two German raids on the Vesle front were repulsed. The night was marked by quite heavy artillery activity in the region of St. Quentin and north of the Vesle River. French detachments penetrated the German lines in the Champagne and in Lorraine and returned with prisoners.

HOUSE LIGHTING CHEAPER

Electric light for houses is two-thirds cheaper than gas, and the fact that the Electric Wiring and Fixture Co. corner of College street and Spadina avenue, are wiring houses for electric light, concealing the wires and without breaking the plaster or marking the decorations, completing an eight-room house in three days, makes one who has not seen the day's work, think that the electric light is a new thing. This company are also agents for the famous electric heater that can be attached to any electric light socket and costs one half cent per hour to operate and sells for ten dollars. Phone College 1878.

GEORGE DAVIES INJURED

In a fall at the Leaside munitions factory yesterday George Davies, a workman, sustained injuries to his back from which he is expected to die. He was taken to the General Hospital.

SPOT CASH AND FULL VALUE VICTORY BONDS

FOR ANY KIND OF VICTORY BONDS and scrip certificates, whether registered or bearer, even if not paid up.

STERILIZED WIPING CLOTHS

WIPING CLOTHS E. MULLAN, TORONTO

DIAMONDS

CASH OR CREDIT. We are and our stock, as we guarantee to save you money. JACOBS BROS., Diamond Importers, 15 Yonge Arcade, Toronto.

SAFE CANADA NEEDS THE MONEY