LAY THE CORNERSTONE OF NEW BRANTFORD SCHOOL

Special To The Toronto World.

Brantford, Aug. 4.—The corner-stone of the new Major P. H. Ballahey School in the East ward, being erected at a cost of $125,000, was laid this afternoon by Dr. Marquis, chairman of the board of education, with A. K. Bunnell, board secretary, giving the history of Brantford's schools and Rev. J. B. Fotheringham assisting. The school was named as a memorial to Major P. H. Ballahey, second in command of the 58th Battalion, and the only member of the board who enlisted, saw service in France and met death there.

THE TROUBLE.

"Why were you absent from school yesterday?" Grace asked the teacher.

"Please, teacher, my mummy was sick."

"The teacher, who is afraid of contagion, asked:

"What is the matter with her? What does the doctor say it is?"

"Please, teacher, he says it's a boy."

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

With 2700 cattle on the market yesterday, there was a good demand for all butcher cattle with weight and quality, and a strong demand for heavy weight, well-finished steers. All the medium and common cattle were, however, slow of sale.

There was a weak demand for the stockers and feeders, few buyers coming on the market for this class, the unfavorable outlook for fall pasture, now regarded as serious, all thru Ontario, acting as a check. Good milking cows and springers were enquired after and sold at satisfactory prices. All ordinary, common cattle, while probably holding their own, were slow of sale, but the better class a shade higher, with the market fairly well cleared up, the quite a few common to medium weight steers and heifers were left unsold. Considering the large percentage of poor, ill-finished cattle, the wonder is that the market gets away with it all so well.

In the small stuff, with a light run of sheep and lambs, the market was stronger. Choice lambs sold at from $1 to $1.50 per cwt. higher. Choice lambs sold at from $1.50 to $1.75, with a few small bunches bringing more money—as high as $1.75.

Choice yearlings sold at from $1.25 to $1.50; light, heavy-weight sheep, 90 to 100 lbs.; heavy, fat sheep and bucks at 75c to 85c. Market closed with a good demand for the choice lambs.

With a moderate run of calves—400 in all—the market was stronger on choice veal, the latter selling at from 16c to 18c; medium calves selling at from 15c to 16c; grassers and common calves at 75c to 100c; and heavy, fat calves at from 8c to 11c per lb. There was a slow demand for the heavy calves, but the choice veal sold well, with everything cleaned up.

The run of sheep and lambs was 725, and of calves, 400—moderate deliveries as a matter of fact.

All told, there was a run of about 1700 hogs on the Union Stock Yards market yesterday, with the prices steady to 25c higher, selling at 25c to the farmer, 25c to 10c, 24c to 10c and watered and 25c even money, weighed off cars. To say that no such prices have ever before been obtained in Canada, would not be correct, as 25c steady was paid for a bunch of fed and watered not long ago. It is up around the top and speculation is rife as to whether we have yet reached the limit or not. Only time can tell.

SPECIAL MARKET NOTES.

The sale by the Corbett, Hall, Coughlin Company yesterday of a bunch of 1800 hogs, was one of the features of the exchange. They were shipped in by Alfred Paul, of St. Mary's, a uniformly high-class shipper, and probably constitute a record.

Another good load consigned into the C. H. and C. Co. was that of William Karcher, of Port Elgin, weighing around 1200 lbs., and sold at $14.50. Mr. Karcher, as might naturally be expected, was delighted with the sale. The same firm sold two loads of hogs, weighing around 1000 lbs., at $13.25.
