When nature design ed men she didn't make them all the same style. Some are tall, thin, short and stout. We fit out a good many of the latter build from our specially selected stock of stouts built for men that our regular stock will not fit. It has taken years to get this style to perfection, but we stuck to it till to-day a stout man can be as easily fitted from our stock as ordinary men. If you are of stout build don't fail to visit us and see how nicely we can fit you, and at such moderate prices as $10, $12, $15 and $18.

ceive Awards.

Many classes of the thorobred horses were judged Friday afternoon at the Exhibition. Robert Davies, Toronto, carried off most of the prizes in these classes. Mr. Thistle won the silver medal for best mare any age. In the thorobred classes, Dalmoor, the Queen's Plate winner of 1900, won the prize for heat are also assess. Mr. Thistle won the silver medal for best mare any age. In the thorobred classes, Dalmoor, the Queen's Plate winner of 1900, won the prize for heat are also asses. Mr. Grand and touch are distinctive and hold a place quite alone in the plane world. Courteous representatives of the firm are pleased to show visitors to the Exhibition some of the choicest of these great instruments, whilst at the handsom plane saloons of Heintzman & Co., 115-117 West King-street, an attractive exhibit is always made. Plate winner of 1900, won the prize Lessard and Lieut.-Col. Mead. Plate winner of 1900, won the prize for best stallion, any age. Awards were also made in some classes of the ponies and polo ponies. The performance of the polo ponies was a most interesting one to the spectators. In the polo ponies' classes, Campbell, Myers, and Col. Lessard won firsts. The Dominion government prize for pair of proadsters in harness not less than 15.1 hands was won by Miss K. L. Wilkes, Vicor and Victor. Miss Wilkes has captured many prizes so far at the Fair. This team was an exceptionally fine one. Two classes of the hunters were disposed of, and George Peffer secured two firsts, two seconds and one third, Crowe & Murray getting the remaining prizes. G. W. Curtis' fleet Mimie Keswick, from Lindsay, was adjudged the best single pacer, 15 hands and over, and was a good first. In this class many picked William Newman's Eric R. a chestnut gelding from St. Catharines, but this horse was not in the money.

A Great Boom on Hamilton is enjoying the greatest boom in its history. Far more people than can find houses are crowding into the city. In addition to the fac-tories in the course of erection now, many new plans have been made. The John McPherson Company will build a large addition to their factory on Jackson-street, and the number of hands will be increased from 360 to 450. Rumor says that a large department store will be built on the corner of James street and the market ind another on the Stinson estate, at the corner of James and King William-streets.
