B. W. F. Beavers, who has recently disposed of his Farquhar business, is announced as the owner of the new Semi-Ready tailoring store to be opened this month in Brantford. A new front and new fixtures are being installed. S. R. Eacrett, a Brantford boy, will be associated with Mr. Beavers, and as he is a practical tailor, his alliance with the new business will be an advantage. All the new Spring models of the Semi-Ready lines will be exhibited and it is Mr. Beavers' intention to keep the Brantford store always well stocked with the best imported suitings. "Semi-Ready suits are sold at the same prices everywhere Canada, and our new store will be just as well equipped as the older established Semi-Ready stores in the larger cities," said Mr. Beavers.

Old Boys' Banquet.

About 150 of the Old Boys' Association of the Phoebe John and Brantstreet schools were gathered in the grill room of Williams' Cafe last night for their first annual dinner. After justice had been done to the Informal addresses were delivered by Ambassadors Jussrand and Bryce.

A letter from Booker T. Washington was read at the banquet to-night. It urged negroes to be law-abiding and added: "That every member of my race who does not work, who leads an immoral life, dishonors the name and memory of Lincoln. In every part of this country I want to see my race live such high and useful lives that they will not merely be tolerated, but that they shall actually be needed."

He urged the white race to be just German burgher classes as well as a tribute to the merchants and financiers of the country, who are in reality the makers of modern Germany. It can be stated with authority that in the British view the result of the recent political conferences between British and German statesmen in Berlin is regarded as eminently satisfactory and it is felt that these conversations will have an excellent effect upon Anglo-German relations.
