Baseball Leafs Home For Long Stay ... Bowling Play for Trophies

First Round at Chicago

RAIN AT BUFFALO LEAFS HOME TODAY

Long Home Stay Starts-Manager Lajoie is Reinstated.

The Toronto Leafs' last day away from home for some time to come did not materialize in Buffalo. When they, along with the 'Bisons, were scheduled to take the field for the fourth contest of the season, a generous rainstorm was in progress. The diamond was in such a shape that even had it let up it would have been impossible to stage the battle.

LEAFS AND BIRDS TODAY.

With second place virtually depending upon the result of the series which opens today at the island between the Leafs and the Baltimore Birds, good baseball is assured. It is expected that Manager Lajoie will be back in the game today, which will be called at 3.15.

President Barrow will be in town today.

PAINHAM TO PITCH TODAY FOR BIRDS

The Baltimore Club, that opens at the island today, are carrying the following players: McAvoy, Schaufele, Lefler, catchers; Thormahlen, Appleton, Newton, Hill, Parnham, pitchers: Williams, first base; Truesday, second base; Bues, third base: Shannon, shortstop; Lamar, left field; Barber, centre field; Acosta, right field; Bentley, sub.; J. Dunn, manager.

The line-up and batting order for the opening game will be as follows: Truesdale, 2b; Acosta, rif.; Barber, c.f.; Lamar, l.f.; Williams, lb.; Bues, 3b.; Shannon, s.s.; McAvoy, c.; Parnham, p.

Feuster, whom the Braves loaned to Worcester, has been playing shortstop. Shannon was spiked by Rehg, but expects to open in Toronto.

Appleton decided to return to the game and joined the club in Providence.

Hill and Parnham are the property of the Athletics. Hill, from Waco, Texas League, won 22, lost 14; Parnham, toom North Carolina League, won 16, lost 13.

Lefler is from Trinity College, North Carolina, first year out.

Bentley's arm is still in poor shape. He is being used as a pinch hitter and sub. outfielder.

EIGHT TORONTO RINKS ARE STILL IN TROPHY EVENT

Rain Stops Play at Fiagara-on-the-Lake---Second Round Uncompleted --- Dr. Creelman Knocked Out---Draw for Today.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, July heavy downpour of rain at 2.30 this afternoon put a stop to the second day's proceedings of the Ontario bowling Wonderful Fielding Shut Off tournament, and play was stopped for the day. The rain of Monday night left the greens in poor condition and five greens were unplayable this morning. It was heavy going all day and the "mud horses" were right in their element.

The second round of the trophy competition was carded to get under way at 9 a.m., but the rain-soaked green necessitated a delay of two hours before the day's work could commence.

Four second round games of the trophy were being played when the wetness arrived in the afternoon, and these will have to be finished tomorrow.
