LATE LOCALS

Registrar Jones reports 24 marriages during the present week. Also 24 births, thirteen of which were boys.

The death occurred yesterday of Elsie, the 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

The following St. John passengers sailed from Montreal for Liverpool in the Dominion line steamship "Cassiopea" last Thursday morning: Mrs. David Boston, Miss Harriet S. Comben, Donald Fraser, M. Goudie, J. W. Hume, James McMur-ray, Peter McDonald, James Tennant.

Monday being a public holiday, all the city barber shops will be closed all day. After many years the tonorial artist is beginning to enjoy some of the privileges extended to the public in general. The "shaving" public will not begrudge him a holiday once in a while.

Nine deaths were reported at the office of the board of health for the week ending today. They were from the following causes: Anemia, two; insanity, apoplexy, measles, meningitis, measles and pneumonia, broncho pneumonia and pulmonary tuberculosis, one each.

Joseph S. Howitz, alias Joseph Hayes, alleged to have swindled two St. John firms out of a considerable sum of money, and who was stopped at Vancorbore by U. S. Immigration Officer Currie and brought here yesterday by Acting Detective Caples, was in court yesterday afternoon, but the matter had been settled to the satisfaction of all concerned and he was given his liberty and will probably go to the States, but must await his citizenship papers before he can cross the border.

Preparations for the opening of the children's playground in the Centennial School yard on Tuesday, July 2, are going ahead first rate. Several large tables have been set up, the sand boxes built, a good-sized canvas tent erected, swings made ready and a platform is being built. The arrangements this year will be an improvement on last year as the committee can profit by last summer's experience. Mr. Hill, caretaker of Centennial School, is looking after the preparations.

KILLED BY A LUNATIC

Tragedy in An Insane Asylum in Montreal—Augustin Loizeau is Dead.

MONTREAL, June 28 — (Special) — While struggling with an insane man, Augustin Loizeau, 62 years old, met his death tonight in a cell of the Hospice Gamelin, a charity institution at the corner of Fullum and St. Catherine streets. During the scuffle, which had arisen because Joseph Sorel, an inmate there, refused to go to bed, Loizeau fell violently to the floor and severed an artery in his neck which caused him to expire in a few moments.

Joseph Sorel, the insane man, is now locked up in a padded cell in the central police station, pending the coroner's inquest in the case. There was only one witness of the struggle. This was Adolphe Vaurin, the keeper, who had first tried to persuade Sorel to retire, but latter, who had never previously shown violent signs of insanity, refused to obey and a struggle between the two ensued, during which the keeper called upon Loizeau, who was a boarder, to come and help him. To a morgue employee who went down to the institution for Loizeau's body, Vaurin said that Sorel had kicked him in the stomach during the struggle and that Loizeau on coming to intervene also sustained a violent kick which caused him to fall to the floor.

FAMOUS PICTUREGOES TO ST. PAUL'S

LONDON, June 28—The Right Hon. Charles Booth, owner of Holman Hunt's famous picture, "The Light of the World," has presented it to St. Paul's Cathedral, expressing his own and Mr. Hunt's wish that it be placed in the body of the Cathedral, so as to be readily seen by all who worship there.

A HARD LUCK STORY

Ten-year-old Russell Maxwell, who was found last night in the I. C. R. station and taken to police headquarters for protection, told a hard-luck story to the police.

He was born in Midgie and his father died five years ago, when his mother moved to Mount Watley, near Sackville. She took sick and died in January last, and from that time he had wandered about the country. He was a month in Amherst, then went to Moncton and Newcastle, and then back to Moncton. From there he accompanied the soldiers to Camp Sussex, where he says a man gave him fifty cents. He boarded the train and came here yesterday. He was taken to the Salvation Army Home, Water street, and the officers think he ran away from home. I. C. R. Policeman Scovill found him sleeping in the baggage room of the Union Depot. Scovill says he told different stories of his trip from Sackville to St. John.

Rennie Clarke, a former resident of the west side, but now residing in Vancouver, B. C., arrived in the city yesterday on a visit. Mr. Clarke's mother, Mrs. George Clarke, died a few weeks ago.

CAPT. DICKSON IS HEARD FROM

He Pleads His Own Case in a Letter to the Citizens of St. John.

June 28, '07.

To the Citizens of St. John:
In writing this letter I hope and trust I have the sympathy of the people as a citizen of St. John. As you know I stood up in the court and faced the charges brought against me, pleaded my own case, and came out victorious.

It will be remembered that last winter I was unjustly arrested for insulting Miss Elizabeth Walsh, nothing was proved against me except that I had laid my hand on her arm. For this offense I was ordered to leave the city.

Now when I have committed a crime that I should leave the city, I could say a lot regarding this arrest if I felt like doing it, but I do not, for many a noble heart beats under an old coat.

I don't wish to accuse my wife and I am not going to because I honestly believe that my trouble line originated from people who have wrongly advised, therefore I don't wish to press the charges against her as I feel she is a good woman if left alone.

Now my dear citizens you will remember that about six years ago I had some trouble similar to the recent affair, with regard to my first wife.

Believing as I do, according to letters I have received, that my first wife is dead, wherein has there been shown any evidence that she is alive? Therefore I claim that she is alive! Therefore I claim my lawful wife as regards my second marriage, until it is proven that my first wife is alive and forthcoming. I don't feel that it is necessary for me to use valuable space in the newspapers, but there is one thing, I do intend to do and that is to prosecute the people who have been advising my wife to do wrong. I could say a lot if I wished to do so, but I do not.

I will therefore close with love to my people. Yours respectfully and truly,

CAPTAIN W. R. DICKSON.

P. S.—This letter has been worded by Captain Dickson himself. There is no other individual has had anything to do with it but himself.

THE SHRINERS
CEREMONIAL

Everything is Ready for the Session at the Isle of Pines This Afternoon.

This hot weather is just what the Mystic Shriner has been wishing for to warm up the sands for the pilgrims who are expected to the pilgrimages to the sacred shrine at the Isle of Pines this afternoon. An advance guard has been at the scene of the big ceremonial erecting the tent and getting the paraphernalia in readiness. The camel, an animal of marvelous proportions and full of activity, is being kept under guard. It is difficult to procure one of these ships of the desert on which all the pilgrims could ride, but it was finally accomplished and the big brute is now under a special guard in the big tent. Quite a number of members of the order from outside the city have arrived for the party. The party left Indianapolis about 10 o'clock this morning on the steamer Aberdeen, and expected to reach their destination about noon.

The big ceremonial will commence early this afternoon and will be followed by a banquet.

George Blake, the illustrious potentate of the order, will be in charge of the ceremonies.

INTEREST GROWING IN AMATEUR SHOW

A ready There Has Been a Big Demand for Tickets for Caprice.

The production of Caprice in the Opera House on Friday next, July 5, has awakened more interest than any amateur dramatic event since the palmy days of Zephira. The company is being rehearsed nightly by Theodore H. Bird of the Kirk Brown Company, under whose capable direction the production will be given. Subscription tickets have already been secured and there is a large demand for them. The seat sale will open at the Opera House box office on Thursday morning next and subscription ticket holders will have the first chance of seats.

Arrangements were made yesterday with L. R. Ross whereby the late train on the I. C. R. will make all the local stops of the bed of suburbanites. Supt. Downie, of the C. P. R., has also consented to hold the C. P. R. suburban train until 11.15 p. m. This arrangement will enable all suburbanites to see the complete performance and give them plenty of time to catch their trains to their homes.

A very successful rehearsal of Caprice was held last evening. On Tuesday a full rehearsal of the complete cast and chorus will be held in the Church of England Institute rooms at 8 p. m.

THE HIGH SCHOOL RECEPTION

This year's High School graduates were given a reception at the High School last evening by the members of the alumnus. Miss Miriam Hatheway, president of the alumnus, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Skinner and Mrs. W. J. S. Myles, received the guests. The early part of the evening was spent pleasantly in a social way, and an informal programme was carried out.

Some members of the alumnus entertained with a sparkling one-act play, Pity, a translation from the French. The High School Orchestra furnished music, and the scenes from Shakespeare representing the pretended madness of Hamlet as given at the public closing, were enacted by the members of the graduating class.

At the conclusion of the programme, dainty refreshments were served, and the gathering broke up about 11 o'clock, the graduates feeling that their last evening at the High school came near to being the most pleasant.

Dr. William Pugsley returned from Fredericton last night.

Miss Maude A. Cline, professional nurse, of Fall River (Mass.), is home on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cline, St. James street.

Miss M. A. Chubbuck, of Amherst, is in town the guest of Mrs. McKinnon, Wright street.

Mrs. Stanley left this morning to visit her sister Mrs. D. W. Sproule at "Vine Cottage," Mapleton, N. B.
