MISS WILSON DENIES

THAT SHE IS TO WED

Buffalo, Oct. 15.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, categorically denies reports from Chicago that she is about to wed Frank E. Compton, a publisher.When seen at her hotel, Miss Wilson said: "You know those reports have been spread all summer.""Then there is no truth to the reports," she was asked.

"Absolutely."

Frank E. Compton is president of the F. E. Compton Publishing Company. He is forty-two years old, a widower, the father of an eight-year-old boy, and has adopted a little girl.Mr. Compton declined either to confirm or deny the report. "I am not in a position to speak," he said. "Any statement on such a matter must come from Miss Wilson or from the president."

OPERA HOUSE

Stock Company Scores a Hit in Another Good Play"The Blue Mouse," a comedy drama by Clyde Fitch, as presented by the Par-tello Stock Company at the Opera House last night, proved to be a highly entertaining play and was enjoyed by a large audience. The many good points of the comedy, its twisting of identities and consequent mix-ups of characters—provoked hearty laughter and furnished an enjoyable evening's entertainment.
The several members of the company were thoroughly at home in the play and the performance ran smoothly.Miss Kennedy, as "Paulette, the Blue Mouse," the responsible party for all the trouble, was a pleasant, dashing, attractive in personality and altogether charming.
One could not blame the men for being in love with her and losing their heads—her admirers were not all on one side of the footlights, judging by the applause.
As "Lewellyn," the gay, old sport, R.
E. Johnson was one of the "fits of the performance." The scenic effects were bright and new and in keeping with the splendid production given by the company."The Blue Mouse" is worth while and worth going to see. It will be repeated tonight and for two performances tomorrow.A story you'll like to the last—"Neal of the Navy."Roosevelt HAS NO USE FOR THE HYPHENSooner He Returns to Country of His Allegiance the Better, He SaysNew York, Oct. 15.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, speaking at Carnegie Hall under the auspices of the New York Chamber of Commerce, gave full vent to his feelings about hyphenated Americans. The Colonel's topic was "Americanism" and he was spurred to his best efforts by 2,500 enthusiastic men and women who cheered themselves hoarse.In a long speech delivered with all the vigor and eagerness of which he is possessed the Colonel told his convictions scored as traitors those who were not wholeheartedly for their country first and all the time, and offered his suggestions for the Americanization of those who came to the United States as immigrants. The foreign population he said, must be an American population,
and he was spurred to his best efforts by
cheered themselves hoarse.There is no place here for the hyphenated American, he said, "and the sooner he returns to the country of his allegiance the better." The Colonel took a ring at Germany and Austria for attempting to stir up strife between the United States and these countries, and spoke a bit scornful about labor troubles here which were not caused by foreign agents.
These must cease, he said, if we were to have the true American spirit. He characterized as worse than hyphenated Americans rich men who keep down the wages of immigrants employed so that they could not enjoy life and fostered discontent which tended to prevent true allegiance to the United States.Reasserting advocacy of the adoption of the Swiss plan of universal service, he put aside the manuscript to make this point."I would have the son of the millionaire and the son of the immigrant who came over in the steerage, sleep under the same dog tent and eat the same grub.
It would help mightily to a mutual comprehension of life."While talking of preparedness he broke out into this piece of sarcasm which pleased the crowd immensely: "I want to call the attention of the individuals who sing about the nation who did not bring her boy to be a soldier, to the fact that if the song had been popular from 1776 to 1783 there would not be anyone singing it today."Wm. Courtright, Jr., and Lillian Loraine in "Neal of the Navy."GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESSHumors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils, and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. Get Hood's. No other medicine acts like it.

A Beauty Hint

The new treatment for tender skins

ANY people with tender skins have been misled by the superstition that washing the face with soap and water is bad for the complexion.
An authority says, "The layer of dirt and fat that such persons accumulate on the skin is a poor substitute for a clean, clear skin and is a constant invitation to various disorders." The following treatment with Woodbury's Facial Soap is just what a tender skin needs to keep it attractive and resistant.Just before retiring dip a soft washcloth in warm water and hold it to the face. Do this several times. Then make a light warm water lather of Woodbury's and dip your cloth up and down in it until the cloth is "luffy" with the soft, white lather. Rub this lathered cloth gently over your skin until the pores are opened and thoroughly cleaned. Rinse the face lightly with clear, cool water and dry the skin by patting, not rubbing, with the towel.Use this treatment persistently for ten days and your skin will show a marked improvement—a promise of that loveliness which the ready use of Woodbury's brings to a tender, sensitive skin.A 25c cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap is sufficient for a month or six weeks of this treatment. Get a cake today. It is made in Canada and is for sale by Canadian druggists from coast to coast.
