Easter Candy Fun For All

Exciting Tastes animal Candies are far from being the only good things gathered by Ross for Easter.

Neither are the Violet Gift Boxes of Moirs and Ganong's. The sweetest you can have in fractions of a pound are well worth a quick step across the street.

Prominent mention applies to the different Neilson Milk Chocolate in slabs—plain, with raisins or nuts.

Marzipans taste like cake. Round White balls with candied cherry. Ever hear of a cake candy? Try these with your eyes shut.

Neilson Maraschino Cherries inside melt Chocolate Creams, 69c lb. Peppermint Patties, 50c. Billie Burke Chocolates assorted, 65c. After Moirs and Ganong's think of Frank White's hard mixtures at 35c.

Scamper or Easter will get here ahead of you!

DIES ON VOYAGE; BURIED AT SEA

Woman Succumbs—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomson Return on Montclare.

While the Canadian Pacific steamship Montclare, which arrived here today, was en route to this port from Liverpool, one of her third-class passengers, an elderly woman, passed away. She was a native of Germany named Muller and was said to be 83 years of age. She was in poor health when she boarded the vessel. Last Monday night she took a turn for the worse and died. The following morning she was buried at sea. Burial services were read by Rev. J. D. Parker, who was acting chaplain for the voyage.

Last Trip Here.

The Montclare, which arrived on her last trip of the season, brought 1,300 passengers, comprising 1,114 adults, 167 children and 19 infants. The greater number were British and Scandinavians and were destined to upper Canada and the prairie provinces. Among the third-class passengers were 102 boys for Dr. Barnardo's Home in Toronto. There were also a party of 25 settlers for western Canada, another of 135, a salvation party of 20 and a land party of 15.

The new settlers were as fine a looking body of men and women arriving at the port during the season. One fine looking young man was a son of wealthy parents. He said he was the "black sheep" of the family, but was coming to Canada to prove to his folks that he could make good. He said he had money enough to last him a year or more without having to turn a hand, but he would secure work if he had to sweep the streets. He is en route to the west.

St. John Represented.

The steamer brought 55 bags of letters and 2,828 bags and packages of magazines and parcel post. Out of this lot 178 bags and packages were for maritime province points. The passengers were to be sent forward to their destinations in four special trains.

Prominent among the passengers were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Royden Thomson of Rothesay, Viscount Combermere of London, Ont., en route to Askerod, B. C., on a visit to relatives; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brand of Westfield, N. B.; M. E. Bellamy of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hobday of Toronto; F. C. Binns of Montreal; C. Friend of Toronto; E. C. Peckwith of Toronto and Col. E. S. McQueen, C. M. of Montreal, who is one of the C. P. R. directors.

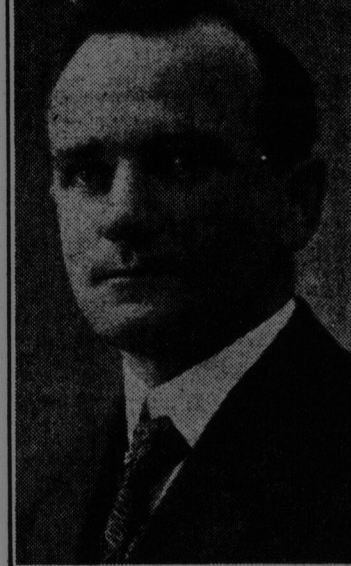

Welcome Brides.

The arrival of the steamer at Sand Point was hailed with delight by two men, one a young man and the other who has passed the flower of youth. Both were there to welcome two prospective brides. One of the young ladies is Miss D. Moore of Glasgow, Scotland, who is soon to become Mrs. D. Martin. They are to be married in Windsor, Ont. The other young lady fought shy of the newspaper representative and refused to be interviewed. Her fiancé, who is a Torontonian, also refused to divulge his name.

Another passenger on board who is on a long journey was R. M. Marshall, son of Dr. R. J. Marshall of Shanghai. He will cross Canada and embark on the Empress of Russia. Rev. J. F. D. Parker is returning to his home after a visit to England. He received at St. Peter's Cathedral in Qu'Appelle, Sask. It is his first trip to his native land in 42 years. He has been working in the interests of the Church of England in western Canada since 1882.

Wins Way Up In The Postal Service

William F. Griffith

WILLIAM F. GRIFFITH.

William F. Griffith has been in the postal service for the last 16 years, and his promotion to the position of acting inspector, succession to Alexander Thompson, announced in The Times-Star, is a reward for faithful service in that period. He started in as a transfer clerk at the depot and has steadily advanced since that time. His many friends are extending congratulations on the well-deserved promotion which he has received. For some time he has been chief clerk in the enquiry section at the post office.

LOCAL NEWS

TO BROTHERHOOD MEETING. H. C. Marley, provincial grand president of the Brotherhood of Dominion Express Company Employees, left last evening en route to Toronto and Winnipeg to attend a meeting of the grand executive of the brotherhood.

SIGNS OF SPRING. A canoe and a sail boat were out on the river at Renforth yesterday. The season of pleasant hours afloat is at hand—despite today's weather. The pure white bud of a crocus in a Germain street grass plot, ready to bloom for Easter, attracts the passer-by.

J. ROY BELL IS CHIEF. At a meeting of Alexandra Temple, No. 6, T. of H. and T., on Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the coming term: Chief Templar, J. Roy Bell; vice templar, George Green; recorder, B. W. Wilson; assistant recorder, Russell Gallop; financial recorder, S. E. Logan; treasurer, F. P. Gallop; chaplain, C. H. Black; usher, R. Roberts; deputy usher, Arthur McAlary; guardian, H. M. Jones; sentinel, James McLeod.

BIRTHDAY IS OBSERVED. The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mabey, Bryden street, North End, was invaded by friends on Thursday evening on the occasion of Mr. Mabey's birthday. Mrs. Charles Culver on behalf of those present presented a handsome morocco bound reference Bible to Mr. Mabey, who cordially thanked his friends for the gift. A nicely laid birthday cake with the correct number of lighted candles was also presented to Mr. Mabey and cut by him with the boys, and they each contributed toward the token of their regard for him and their appreciation of his interest in their welfare. No other acknowledgment could have so greatly pleased Mr. Lewis as this gift from the boys who had become so much a part of his life throughout the winter.

DEATHS NUMBER 21. Twenty-one deaths are recorded by the local Board of Health for the week ending today, from the following causes: Broncho-pneumonia, two; pericardial anæmia, two; cerebral hemorrhage, two; pulmonary tuberculosis, two; streptococcal infection, two; pericardial anæmia, two; diphtheria, chronic bronchitis, carcinoma of spine, whooping cough, chronic myocarditis, septic fever, tuberculosis, enteritis, tuberculosis meningitis, one each.

A GIFT FROM THE BOYS. One of the most pleasing incidents at the closing of the South End Boys' Club on Wednesday evening was the presentation of an engraved lock of hair to the boys by William Lewis, chairman of the club committee. Mr. Lewis had spent nearly every evening all winter with the boys, and they each contributed from the pennies they had saved toward this token of their regard for him and their appreciation of his interest in their welfare. No other acknowledgment could have so greatly pleased Mr. Lewis as this gift from the boys who had become so much a part of his life throughout the winter.

JUNIORS PLAN A BASEBALL LEAGUE

Representatives of Several St. John Churches to Organize.

Although the spotlight on baseball matters for the coming season has been centered on the seniors, plans already are taking shape for the formation of a junior baseball league in the city, to include representatives of various churches, and matters have reached the stage where an organization meeting has been called for next Thursday evening in the Victoria street Baptist church. All church groups desirous of entering this league, which will be confined to boys 18 years and under, are invited to send a representative to this meeting.

The ministers of several churches have promised support. The promoters are aiming to divide the league into several sections—North End, West St. John and Fairville, and South End. They feel there is sufficient material in each church to place a good junior ball team on the field. If the league materializes, a trophy already has been promised by a public-spirited citizen.

PROGRESSIVES WILL BE HERE TOMORROW

Preparations Completed for Welcome and Entertainment of Visitors.

Preparations have been completed for the civic welcome to the Progressive members of parliament, and their wives, who will be the guests of the city and province while here. It is planned to show them around the harbor and city, have a luncheon on Monday at noon and to place in their hands information about St. John as a world port and its claims to a larger share of the overseas traffic from the western part of Canada.

The party are to arrive in St. John tomorrow evening about 5.30 and will be met at the depot by Mayor Fisher and Commissioner Bullock, representing the City Council and G. E. Barbour and R. E. Armstrong, representing the Board of Trade. They will be escorted to the Royal Hotel, where rooms have been reserved for them and the evening will be left free for those who desire to visit the city.

Plans for Monday. Monday morning they will be driven around the city, visiting the east and west side terminals and the 'dry dock' at Courtenay Bay. At noon they are to be guests at the Rotary Club luncheon. Short addresses are to be delivered by the Mayor, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, M. P., and G. E. Barbour. The ladies of the party will be entertained at luncheon at the Golf Club.

As they will leave at four o'clock nothing has been planned after the luncheon at the Rotary Club. The party arrived at Halifax yesterday. The formal welcome on behalf of the city and the province was extended at the legislative chamber and later a reception was tendered them at Government House. Last evening they were guests at the White Star Dominion Line at dinner on the Regina. Happy speeches were made by the Westerners, all of whom appear unanimous in their expressions of appreciation for the goodwill as manifested in the Maritime Provinces, and on all sides were heard expressions of satisfaction for the spending of the Easter recess in studying a part of Canada which hitherto was unfamiliar to them.

ODDFELLOWS HAVE A NOTABLE DAY

Oriental Order Initiates 35 Moncton Sends 100 to Ceremonies.

Yesterday was a big day for the members of the Oriental Order of Humility and Perfection, one of the degrees of the I. O. O. F. Thirty-five were initiated into the mysteries of this branch of the order. The ceremony was performed in the hall of the Golden Bull Lodge, West Side, and there was a large attendance of the members. About 100 members of the I. O. O. F. of Moncton, N. B., made a special pilgrimage to be present and take part in the work of leading the neophytes across the burning sands.

The session began at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and was not concluded until 10 o'clock last night. At 6 o'clock recess was taken for lunch and this was followed by the "Moon Feast." The charter of the new lodge will not be received for several weeks and the name will not be given out until that time. The Moncton visitors returned to their homes last evening. The officers of the visiting team were: Grand byastyle, H. G. McPherson; vice grand, C. Stultz; registrar, K. L. Atkinson; banker, A. J. MacLean; collector of skekels, D. Milton; venerable friar, J. Christie; grand monitor, T. Gibson; grand chief guide, J. F. Heffer; grand high executioner, A. Richardson. The chief entertainer was Archie Hutton, a former member of the "Original Dumbells."

HOLD PANTRY SALE. Members of the De Monts Chapter I. O. O. F. are holding a pantry sale at 65 King street today in aid of the society's general fund. Mrs. Walter W. White is general convenor, assisted by chapter members. The tables and store were prettily decorated with Easter trimmings. Mrs. Leonard Tilley is regent of the chapter.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "the season of envy and of all uncharitableness is here again."

"It is," said Hiram. "I have the envy, and the owners of automobiles have the uncharitableness. I cannot go on the street these days, without a manifestation of both feelings. I walk, the others ride. They ride, I walk. They gaze scornfully at me and go speeding past. I have no car."

"Now, look-a-her!" said Hiram. "Bein's it's Easter time I'll just preach you a little sermon. You haint got no call to envy nobody unless they're better folks than you be—in their hearts. If anybody has an ottomobel, an 'kin afford it, you orto be glad they're that well off. If they got one an' can't afford it, you orto be sorry fer 'em bein' so foolish. If you got sense enough to know you can't afford a car, you orto thank the Good Lord fer givin' you that good sense. Bein' happy ain't in what you hev—but what you be. It's many an oneasy conscience an' on'happy soul givin' round in ottombel's. Don't you mind walkin'—as long as you walk straight—that's the thing, yes, sir."
