

SILENCE.

In silence mighty things are wrought;
Silently builded, thought on thought,
Truth's temple greets the sky,
And like a citadel with towers,
The soul, with her subservient powers,
Is strengthened silently.

Soundless as chariots on the snow,
The saplings of the forest grow
To trees of mighty girth;
Each mighty star in silence burns,
And every day in silence turns
The axle of the earth.

The silent frost with mighty hand,
Fetters the rivers of the land
With universal chain;
And smitten by the silent sun,
The chain is loosed, the rivers run,
The lands are free again.

DAVIDSON was so bound up in his books that his wife exclaimed:
"I wish a book that I might always be in your society." "I wish you were an almanac, so I could change you every year," replied he.

—The Queen has granted a pension of £50 a year to the widow of the brave Captain Knowles of the emigrant ship Northfleet.
