Amatite Roofing!

You'll Never Need a Faint Brush.

When you lay Amatite on the roof you're through with it. You don't have to paint it every year to keep it from leaking. It has a real mineral surface which does not need painting. Most of the old-fashioned, "smooth surfaced" or Rubber Roofing, which requires painting, costs more than Amatite and you have all the extra cost of paint. It looks easy now to give your roof an occasional coating in the future. But do you realize that in 1913 you must paint it, and in 1915 you must paint it, and in 1917 you must paint it, and in 1919—that far-away year—you must still be painting that confounded old Rubber Roof. Why, a new Amatite Roof will cost less than the paint alone. Send us for free samples and booklet explaining all about it. Ask your dealer for Amatite Roofing.

MR. HICKMAN presented a petition from Bay-de-Verde, Daniel's Cove and Grate's Cove, re road.

MR. COAKER presented a petition from Charlottetown, re Temperance.

THE PREMIER presented petitions from St. John's West, re Temperance. The Premier (for the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, absent through the sickness) presented the report of the Fisheries Commission of the Legislature.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

It was moved and seconded and carried that the Rules of the House be suspended in relation to all matter now before the House.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Second reading of Council's Amendments for Sealing Bill.

MR. KENT said that some of the amendments to the Bill were extensive and there were now sections added. He proposed a departure from the usual rule of two readings and that the House go into Committee of the Whole on the amendments.

The motion being put accordingly was carried.

MR. PARSONS took the Chair of Committee.

The amendments were read by the Prime Minister.

The Committee rose and reported having passed the amendments with some amendment.

The Council's amendments were concurred in and ordered to be sent to the Legislative Council with a message.

Second reading of Council's amendments to Saw Mills Bill.

THE PREMIER shortly explained the amendments, which were unimportant. The amendments were read the second time and concurred in, and a message ordered to be sent to the Legislative Council accordingly.

The Pilotage Bill was read the third time and ordered to be sent to the Legislative Council for their concurrence.

Third reading of the Bill to amend the Revenue Act, 1906.

MR. KENT desired to refer to the question of the balance of trade. No other conclusion could be drawn from our trade figures as furnished, except that we were drawing upon our reserves.

The question of the balance of trade depended on the particular country in question, and its circumstances. There was no parallel between English or Canadian conditions and our own. Both countries were drawing on reserves; England, because she had the accumulated wealth of her past energies, and invested it in shipping and foreign enterprises, and in connection with acting as the financial agent of the world.

Canada, on the other hand, was anticipating her future borrowing on the security of her future development. Canadian borrowings of all sorts were enormous. We on the other hand, borrowed little or nothing, except what the Government had lately. Our trade figures showed practically our whole financial or commercial position. He could see no justification for the taking off of a large sum last year in the taxation, and the restoring of the other taxes this year. There was no necessity for such an increase as had been made in taxation. Last year's prediction of the Opposition had been verified, that the Government would be unable to carry on its services with that reduction of taxation. Extravagance had prevailed in many branches of the public service. Proper care had not been taken in estimates, and proper supervision had not been given to expenditure. He had already pointed out, that in his opinion the poor people paid more in proportion to their means on many articles than the rich.

The Government had not used sufficient consideration before imposing this tariff on the country. It would probably produce much more revenue than the necessity of the case required. There would apparently be a surplus of half a million for 1914.

THE PREMIER said that the differences between England and Canada and this country were also resemblances, and we had in this we were in the same position. The Government had not used sufficient consideration before imposing this tariff on the country. It would probably produce much more revenue than the necessity of the case required. There would apparently be a surplus of half a million for 1914.

MR. GRIMES said that his intention was that the Government should give the present privileges only on condition of the company giving up its monopoly in some measure.

THE PREMIER said that he had risen the Committee yesterday out of courtesy to Mr. Grimes, to ask the companies if they would give up their monopoly rights. This was of course helpless; they would naturally not hear of it. The privileges had been given years ago to the companies, as the preliminary to getting them to go there at all. No sane man would invest money otherwise.

THE PREMIER said that in 1902 the United Towns Electrical Co. got their concessions; and for 12 years they had given every satisfaction, and a cheap

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—"Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.

"Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if mere women used your remedies they would have better health."—Mrs. J. T. COOK, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P.E.I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of women—ills that deal out despair. It is a record that has established the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

posed the other evening that the merging of these two undertakings be allowed only on condition of their giving up their monopoly to some extent. The grant of such a monopoly, however unobjectionable was always objected to. In the case of a company in a small business, and a locality of small population, such as this, where the margin of profit was very small, and no enormous increase of population was to be expected, they must be given some advantages to induce them to establish. The selling company in this case had found their own undertaking impossible, and were merely getting out with their bare expenses. The purchasing company gave a good service and a cheap light, and were always under the competition of cheap kerosene oil. The companies represented that this monopoly would be their only protection in the investment. He therefore moved the adoption of the Amendment.

MR. GRIMES thought that to give such exclusive rights to any company might have disastrous consequences. He objected to monopolies generally; they had everywhere been found objectionable. As to the forfeiture clause, it seemed that the company was not bound to light all the towns referred to. He might leave any one town, and it would in practice be impossible for one town to light itself without the co-operation of the others.

MR. HIGGINS said that the actual fact was that the monopoly was not being created to-night. It was granted last year. But if the two charters were before him now, he would vote for them. This question of creating monopoly had been dealt with in several cases already. No one would create companies of this kind without some guarantee that he would be protected. At present the people of Harbor Grace and Carbonar had very satisfactory light and power much cheaper than in St. John's. We might expect the same of other companies and localities. The prospects were that no other company could or would provide as light and power as it had to do. It was done by one company anyhow. The question was, should the company have a monopoly, or would the places do without light altogether. The dividend paid last year was $5,800, as he understood, and not $20,000 as Mr. Grimes stated. The dividends were very backward in the matter of modern conveniences; and if we could in any way facilitate the introduction of electric lights in these places, they should try to do so. The shareholders in these concerns were not foreigners, coming here for privileges, but our own people.

MR. GRIMES said that his intention was that the Government should give the present privileges only on condition of the company giving up its monopoly in some measure.

THE PREMIER said that he had risen the Committee yesterday out of courtesy to Mr. Grimes, to ask the companies if they would give up their monopoly rights. This was of course helpless; they would naturally not hear of it. The privileges had been given years ago to the companies, as the preliminary to getting them to go there at all.
