Brandram's B.B. Genuine White Lead

on that job."

Brandram's B. B. Genuine White Lead is the one safe white lead to use because it is corroded by the famous Brandram process, which makes it penetrate further into the wood on account of its wonderful smoothness and fineness. It can be depended upon to protect the wood longer against deterioration than lead made by any other process.

BRANDRAM-HENDERSON

Human Elements

London, June 3.—Despite the Emperor's disaster in a special shipping article, the Financial News asserts that apprehensions exist in the Dominion lest the Lawrence route of adversely affected by the accident, but on this occasion the human element rather than navigation difficulties was responsible for the tragedy. Nevertheless, says the article, the river is a dangerous one, of which the underwriters know the risks only too well, and, in fact, they consistently decline to lower the marine insurance tariff. At the same time, the southern route gives evidence of dangers. It is now for the authorities on the other side to demonstrate that navigation in the river and gull involves for competent seamen and vessels no unusual difficulty.

Constabulary Resign

London, June 29.—The recent army revolt at the Curragh camp is being re-enacted on a small scale in connection with the Royal Irish Constabulary, the members of which, anticipating trouble over home rule, are resigning in large numbers. In Derry City, where there is a force of only 40, four resignations have been tendered in the past three days. The authorities are doing their best to conceal the resignations, which are chiefly of Protestants who object to the possibility of firing upon their fellow Protestants. While the force is thus dwindling, owing to resignations, difficulty is being experienced in finding recruits, although the standard of physique has been lowered and promises are being made of increases in salary.

A Free Hand

Belfast, July 10.—The Provisional Government, formed by Ulster Unionists, at its first meeting to day, gave Sir Edward Carson a free hand to take whatever action he may think necessary in calling Ulster Volunteers to arms. The men were declared to be ready for mobilization at a moment's notice. Carson in a speech, declared that the time had come for the 'loyalists' of Ulster to translate their words into action. He said something must be done to compel the British Government to make up its mind. Ulster, he concluded, was anxious for peace, but was not going to accept peace with surrender.

Removal of Male Birds After the Breeding Season

While across the barren on Tuesday last Mr. John Marshall saw a splendid red and white cow drowned in the brook running out from the 'Var Stave' Gullies. Mr. Marshall cannot say exactly how long the beast was there.

The sooner the members of the House are free of the administration of public moneys, the better. Local moneys should be locally spent, and the members for the District are called on for too many trivial things that people should not expect them to do. — Sir Edward Morris.

The school teachers of this country need to teach the children something more than reading, writing and arithmetic. The boys and girls need tuition along the lines of obedience, civility, discipline, attentiveness. Drilling and physical training should be taught in every school.

Look over your list of friends and acquaintances and note their course. Did you not find on examination that those who today are men of influence and honor, were the youths who made the most of their valuable time, turning it to good account? And on the other hand do you not find those who stood at the corners with a cigarette or cigar in their mouths, went from bad to worse, from worse to ruin?

Show me a town with a live newspaper which receives the practical support and cooperation of the live business men and I'll show you a town, all other things being equal, that will make progress like a steam engine. Bay Roberts has been blessed by God with many natural advantages, but there are too many people living in it who are still waiting for miracles to happen.

Advertising men are indebted to the late Andrew Lang for this suggestive little comparison: "When a goose lays an egg she just waddles off as if she were ashamed of it—because she is a goose. When a hen lays an egg—ah! she calls heaven and earth to witness it. The hen is a natural-born advertiser. Hence, the demand for hen eggs exceeds the demand for goose eggs, and the hen has all the business she can attend to."

Seed Thoughts

Do not keep yourself entirely aloof from even the very sinful, but in no case become a partaker of their evil doings.

You can not help a sinner to a better life by refusing to be found in his company or by manifesting toward him a feeling that you are greatly superior to him. Do not forget that you were once a sinner yourself, and that were it not for the grace of God, you might have been more sinful than he.

We should be friendly and manifest a loving interest in all mankind. Jesus gave himself to the low-down sinner, as well as to him who is usually not considered to be very bad. Let us follow in his steps. We as missionaries are to mingle with all classes, using the greatest tact possible, that we in the hands of God may be the means of saving some from each class to shine in God's kingdom.
