PROSPECTUS

JOLIETTE COLLEGE founded in 1846 by the Honorable Bartholomew Joliette, with the approbation of the Right Rev. I. Bourget, Bishop of Montreal, is conducted by the Fathers of the Community of St. Viateur.

The course of studies comprises three departments: Preparatory, Commercial and Classical.

The PREPARATORY COURSE affords the scholar an opportunity of acquiring the knowledge requisite for entering either the Commercial or Classical Course. The importance of this Course is such, that a student leaving the Institution, having completed his studies in this department possesses a thorough primary education.

Should he, on the contrary, decide to complete his education, he is fitted to enter either the Commercial or Classical Course.

The COMMERCIAL COURSE is complete and responds to all the exigencies of a business life. It insures to any young man, who has satisfactorily applied himself, a sure access to all the commercial, industrial or administrative careers of life. This course closes with a rigorous examination, on all matters relative to this department, and Diplomas are awarded to all scholars who have successfully passed this examination.

The CLASSICAL COURSE, crowned by the double test of: Bachelor of Arts and of Science, entitles young men to embrace either the ecclesiastical or the religious state, or to
