The University of Toronto.

In the year 1827 a Charter was granted by His Majesty George IV., for the establishment of a University at York (now Toronto), under the designation of "King's College;" and in the following year the Institution was endowed, by patent, with a portion of the lands which had previously been set apart by His Majesty George III. for educational purposes.

Under this Royal Charter, as modified by subsequent Statutes of the Legislatures of Upper Canada and of the Province of Ontario, the University of Toronto and University College are now constituted. The University Senate prescribes the requirements for Degrees, Scholarships, and Prizes; appoints Examiners; and confers Degrees in the Faculties of Law, Medicine, and Arts; and in Civil Engineering. Instruction is given by the Faculties of the University and of University College in the Departments of Arts and Science prescribed by the University for the Degrees of B.A., M.A., LL.B.; and, in conjunction with the School of Practical Science, for the Degree of C. E.

For two Honor Lectures per week for Second Year will be given during the Easter Term.
 in Practical Mineralogy, &c., several additional Lectures to Second, Third, and Fourth Year Students will be given.
 * For Honors.

(c) During Easter Term.

Additional Lectures are given at hours not specified in the above Programme.
 * This Programme is subject to modification by the Lecturers when conflict of hours would arise.
